Russians Propose Military Cuts In Address At U.N.

Summit Willingness Expressed; U.S. Lashed On Congo, Far East

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today proposed a 10 to 15 per cent cut in military budgets and expressed willingness of the new Kremlin regime to participate in a summit conference on disarmament.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON
Yawns as Gromyko talks

In a policy speech to the General Assembly, the veteran Soviet diplomat lashed out at U. S. and Western policy on the Congo, Cuba, the Far East, disarmament and the proposed NATO multilateral nuclear force. He gave no indication of a change in Russia's no-pay policy that has precepitated a polito-financial crisis arising from peace-keeping operations.

U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson yawned as he listened to Gromyko's speech. He said he hoped is was more propoganda than policy and termed it "harsh cold war talk."

Gromyko told the Assembly militarily-powerful countries should cut their arms budgets by "10 to 15 per cent or any other agreed extent" and devote the money saved to assistance for developing countries.

The suggestion for using money saved by arms cuts has been endorsed previously by the Assembly and was given strong backing last week by Pope Paul VI.

Gromyko did not specifically propose a summit conference but conveyed the willingness of the Brezhnev-Kosygin Kremlin regime to take part in one, saying:

"The Soviet government is prepared to participate in further discussions in any forum and at any level, including the highest one, of the problem of general and complete disarmament, or banning and destroying nuclear weapons and of measures for the curtailment of the arms drive."

On the whole, observers considered Gromyko's speech restrained. He tempered his condemnation of U. S. activities in

Hard-Hitting Opening Talk From Wilson

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Britain's new Prime Minitser Harold Wilson began talks with President Lyndon B. Johnson today with a warning that the "stresses and strains" within the NATO alliance were becoming intolerable. Wilson said the two countries must agree on "guidelines" to strengthen it. (See photo, page 4.)

The blunt Yorkshireman whose party took over the British government this fall said he expected "frank and straight to the point" talks with Johnson to set the tone for cooperation in nuclear defense strategy and other matters. He said, however, that "in a wider sense" their talks must go beyond the alliance and eventually take into account the other allies and the rest of the world.

Wilson said he came here not as a beggar "asking anything for ourselves" but seeking to find out what "between us we can do to speed our common purpose." His formal speech responding to Johnson's standard welcome on the White House lawn was unusually hard-hitting for that type of occasion.

Johnson welcomed him with remarks which spoke in general terms of "the common purposes of our people."

THEY MEET AT LAST — Little One, the bloodhound, spent much of yesterday looking for Brian (left) and Dianne Lynn Sapia of Kent Woodlands after they disappeared soon after noon. Little One finally led searchers to make another search under the family home where the children had fallen asleep. They were in good health, but the bath was a necessity. About 30 law officers participated in the search. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Eight-Hour Search Finds 'Lost' Youngsters—Under Own Porch

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

Mrs. Carl Sapia of Kent Woodlands noticed the family dog's feeding dish was broken shortly after noon yesterday.

She sent 8-year-old Dianna Lynn out to fix it, and 3-year-old Brian tagged along to watch.

A few minutes later, Mrs. Sapia became aware that she could no longer hear the youngsters' playful chatter, and went out to see if anything was wrong.

Dianna and Brian had disappeared.

The young mother's first thought was that the children had not had time to leave the large yard at 110 Diablo Drive. But a search of the house and grounds turned up no sign of either child. She asked the neighbors to help her find them.

By 1:47 p.m., Mrs. Sapia was sufficiently alarmed to call the Marin County Sheriff's Office. Deputies recalled that Dianna had wandered far from home twice in recent weeks, and had taken her tiny brother with her each time.

Seven deputies searched the hilly, wooded area for four hours. At nightfall, Sheriff's Capt. Sidney Stinson and Lt. Carl R. Sears called out reserves and all off-duty deputies.

Also brought into the search was reserve Sgt. Michael McLean and a bloodhound named Little One, one of two dogs he often takes to aid in similar searches throughout the state.

Concentrating on that area, Stinson and Sears broke the group of deputies up into squads and sent them out in several directions, then called for the county's mobile communications center—a big yellow bus kept at the Marin County Fire Department in Woodacre—to serve as search headquarters.

The switchboard operator at the sheriff's office began calling hundreds of area residents, asking each one to look in yards, garages, alleys—and bodies of water.

To make sure Mrs. Sapia had checked her own home carefully, deputies went through it themselves, twice.

At 10 p.m., as the searchers turned up collars on their jackets to ward off the cold, three

Two Escape Gasoline-Fed Ship Blaze

Fire in the cabin of a $55,000 auxiliary sailboat moored at Marshall Boat Works on Tomales Bay in West Marin County caused about $5,000 damage yesterday.

Owner Jack Tibbetts of Oakland, who has a weekend home in Marshall, and his son-in-law, Robert Heger of Fremont, were cleaning a gasoline filter in the 42-foot boat's engine compartment when gasoline fumes were ignited by the cabin stove.

"I jumped overboard when the gasoline I'd spilled on my clothing caught fire," Tibbetts said today.

"I came off looking like a flaming torch. I fortunately had so many layers of clothing on that the only burn I received was a dime-sized one on my hand," he said.

Heger jumped overboard after unsuccessfully trying to put the fire out with an extinguisher. Both men swam to shore.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and firemen from the Tomales and Point Reyes Station substations had the blaze under control a short time after the five year old boat was pulled

Showers Visit County; Clear Skies To Return

Light rain fell on Marin County during the night but the forecast was for clearing and fair weather tonight and Tuesday.

At 8 a.m. today the 24-hour rainfall total in Ross was .07 of an inch, in Sausalito, .06; Mill Valley and Tamalpais Valley, .05; Chevy Chase (Larkspur) and Woodacre, .04; San Anselmo and Belvedere, .03; Point Reyes, .01, and Novato, a trace.

At noon in San Rafael, the 48-hour total was .06 of an inch.

The five-day forecast by the Weather Bureau said no rain is expected in the central part of the state through Saturday, but rain is likely in the north later this week. Temperatures should be two to five degrees above normal, the forecast said.

San Rafael Area Plan Joint Hearings Urged

San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis and County Supervisor Byron Leydecker joined today in announcing a proposal for joint city-county consideration and action on the pending San Rafael General Plan.

Only recently rivals in a tight battle for Leydecker's supervisorial seat, which he retained in the election, the two said they developed the proposal together within the past few days in an effort to set a pattern for city-county cooperation.

"It's just an effort to make sense in coordinating land planning," said Leydecker. "We hope this may point the way toward a new era in relations between the county and all its cities.

Main feature of the proposal, the joint announcement said, is that joint action be taken on the general plan first at the County Planning Commission level and then by the San Rafael City Council and the county supervisors.

The announcement stressed that McInnis and Leydecker feel that the time to start work is now while the general plan is under consideration and land use objectives in both jurisdictions are being reviewed and set.

Leydecker said the city plan properly includes unincorporated area within the city's sphere of influence, corresponding to its probable ultimate boundaries. The county master plan covering the same territory is out of date and incomplete, he added.

McInnis agreed that the county should be involved since the area is presently under county jurisdiction. He said the process of land planning should be continuous, both before and after city annexations.

The joint proposal follows by a few days county supervisors' decision to inform cities as soon as possible of all planning matters before the county but within some city's sphere of influence.

McInnis is expected to propose to the San Rafael city council that it refer the general plan

Cal Rebels Given Campus Amnesty

COMBINED AP & UPI

The University of California agreed today to drop disciplinary action against leaders of a student revolt over campus rules limiting such activities as collecting funds on campus for civil rights work in the south.

This was included in a peace plan read to a student assemblage by President Clark Kerr shortly after 768 demonstrators arrested last Thursday for a massive sit-in at Sproul Hall, had been warned by a municipal judge that the charges against them posed a peril to their futures.

The text of the proposals of the university department chairmen to end the "free speech movement" controversy:

"1. The university community shall be governed by orderly and lawful procedures in the settlement of issues in full and free pursuit of educational activities on this campus shall be maintained.

"2. The university community shall abide by the new and liberalized political action rules and await the report of the Senate committee on academic freedom.

"3. Departmental chairmen believe that acts of civil disobedience on Dec. 2-3 were unwarranted and that they ob-

Deputy Fails In His Bid To Get Job Back

Former Marin Deputy Sheriff George Johnsen, who was fired last February for striking a man in police custody, nearly got his job back this morning—but not quite.

He got two votes but lost the third before the board of supervisors, who heard an appeal by Johnson and his lawyer, Robert B. McCreadie of Berkeley.

Supervisor George Ludy and Chairman William Gnoss said they believed Johnsen had been punished enough and that he should should be reinstated without back pay. Gnoss and Ludy acknowledged that Sheriff Louis B. Mountanos was justified in finding that Johnsen had used excessive force.

But Supervisor Peter H. Behr voted against reinstatement. Supervisors Byron Leydecker and William D. Fusselman were absent.

Behr explained that his vote was by no means a condemnation of Johnsen's ability to perform in any future law enforcement work.

But Behr reasoned that the sheriff has the duty to set and maintain his own standards for his men.

GIBBON ON THE MOVE

Baby, a forcibly transplanted Novato resident now residing at the Marin County Humane Society in San Rafael, takes a dim view of a carrot peace offering proffered by Jack Faulkner, shelter superintendent. The gibbon lived five of her six years in the front window of Scooter's Pet Cottage at 1121 Grant Avenue, was a favorite of all Novato children, and hasn't fully decided on the merits of San Rafael. Plans are to use her in the society's educational program, give her a large cage and possibly provide a gibbon husband before long. (Independent-Journal photo)

Marin May Have To Share Senate District

By WAT TAKESHITA

A repportionment of the California State Senate will probably mean that Marin and Sonoma counties will have to share one state senator, a Democratic caucus was told yesterday in Santa Rosa.

This report was made by Thomas A. Skornia of Ross, chairman of the Marin-Sonoma Democratic Study Commission on Senate Reapportionment. Skornia presented the report to a group of some 200 assembled at El Rancho Motel for a periodic meeting of the First Congressional District Democratic Caucus.

Any method of reapportionment would reduce the influence of Marin and Sonoma counties by one-half and that of Northern California by an even greater amount, Skornia declared.

The immediate prospect is the combination of Marin and Sonoma into one senatorial district, thus throwing Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) and Sen. Joseph A. Rattigan (D-Sonoma) into the same district, the report said.

The committee gave this explanation of what reapportionment would mean:

The present combined population of Marin and Sonoma Counties is about 370,000. If the present 40 senate seats are reapportioned, the two counties will have to share one senator. This is because the average size of 40 equal state senate districts must be about 450,000.

On the other hand, if the size of the state senate were increased to permit Marin and Sonoma to retain their own senators, then they would be only two among a total of as many as 85 to 100 senators.

"The impact of reapportion-

Vanderbilt Heiress Dies At 88

SOUTHAMPTON, N.Y. (AP)—Consuelo Vanderbilt Balsan, 88, the former Duchess of Marlborough, who led a storybook life as an American heiress, hostess to international royalty and social worker in the London slums, died yesterday at her Long Island home.

Consuelo

She was born into one of America's wealthest families. Her great-grandfather Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, had founded the New York Central Railroad and provided the base for the family's 150-million-dollar fortune.

At 17, the shy, dark-haired Miss Vanderbilt reluctantly married Charles Richard John Spencer-Churchill, ninth duke of Marlborough. He was a first cousin of Winston Churchill. The marriage lasted 11 years, ending in divorce and later was annulled after both had remarried. The ground for the annulment was that her mother had forced her to marry the duke.

In 1921, she married Col. Louis Jacques Balsan, a pioneer French aviator. He died eight years ago.

Norman Thomas Marks Birthday

NEW YORK (UPI)—Norman Thomas, head of the Socialist Party, celebrated his 80th birthday yesterday. He attacked current administration policy both at home and abroad.

Thomas

Thomas told a party gathering of 2,000 persons in the Grand Ballroom of the Astor Hotel that U.S. intervention in South Vietnam was misguided and urged President Lyndon B. Johnson to "negotiate at once for a cease fire."

The six-time loser for the presidency also said the president's anti-poverty war was underfinanced. He said it was "nonsense to talk of total victory" in view of the size of appropriations made so far.

'Satchmo' Barred At South School

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (UPI) — The Univerity of Alabama has refused to permit jazzman Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong to perform at its "Festival of Arts" next February. Students charged race was the reason.

University President Frank A. Rose Jr., insisted last night the action was not taken because Armstrong is a Negro but he declined to say why the performance was canceled.

The student newspaper, Crimson and White, claimed race was the reason and asked the administration to reverse its decision. It called Armstrong a "great American."

Four Italians Vying For Presidency

ROME (AP) — At least four candidates were mentioned today for the Italian presidency to succeed Antoni Segni, who has resigned because of ill health.

Segni, 73, said he was stepping down after two and a half years in office because he could no longer fulfill his duties. He suffered a cerebral stroke Aug. 7 and although he is slowly recovering, he has not regained the use of his right arm and his speech is impaired.

Acting President Guiseppe Merzagora said Parliament will meet Dec. 16 to elect a new chief of state for a seven-year term. He will be the fifth president of Italy, which became a republic in 1946.

The contest intensified the split in Moro's Christian Democratic party. Some Christian Democrats favor former Premier Amintore Fanfani to succeed Segni. Others want Interior Minister Paolo Emilio Taviani and still others support former Premier Giovanni Leone.

Conservatives contend that another Christian Democratic president was needed to help hold the line against the Communists, who made gains in nationwide local elections last month. Leftists argue that election of a Christian Democrat would increase anti-government feeling.

The other three parties in the government — Socialists, Democratic Socialists and Republicans—don't want another Christian Democrat. They are backing Foreign Minister Giuseppe Saragat, leader of the Democratic Socialists. If elected, he would be Italy's first left-wing president.

The Italian presidency is largely a ceremonial office but the president chooses the premier and thus plays a key role in times of political crisis.

Segni was elected president May 6, 1962, after serving in more than a dozen Cabinets and heading two of them as premier.

TAYLOR HUDDLES WITH VIET BOSS

Viet Cong Handed Two Setbacks During Battles South Of Saigon; Morale Rises

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and South Vietnamese Premier Tran Van Huong today opened planning talks expected to lead to bombing of Viet Cong supply lines in Laos.

Taylor returned to Saigon Sunday from Washington amid increasing speculation that the war against the Communists would be broadened. It was believed that President Lyndon B. Johnson had ruled out attacks against North Vietnam, but the Red supply routes through southern Laos were considered likely targets.

Officials said no announcements were expected from the U.S.-Vietnamese planning sessions.

"I think as time goes on the results of the decisions will become apparent," one official said.

Taylor on his return said new measures by both the United States and the South Vietnamese would be discussed. He refused to say what they were.

"As an outcome of my visit," Taylor said, "the president has instructed me to consult urgently with the government of Premier Tran Van Huong as to the measures to be taken to improve the situation here in all its aspects."

The ambassador said Johnson had "reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible useful assistance to the South Vietnam people and the Huong government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them."

Thousands of police were strung out along Taylor's route from the airport into town. There had been rumors that Buddhists planned a demonstration. None materialized.

The South Vietnamese forces scored a major victory against the Viet Cong in a fierce nine-hour battle Saturday on the Ca Mau Peninsula, at the southern tip of South Vietnam. The government said 115 Communists were killed in the encounter at Tan Lac village, about 150 miles southwest of Saigon.

South Vietnamese officials said their side suffered 86 casualties, but the battle was regarded as a psychological boost for the government's war effort, which had been sagging badly.

Six U.S. airmen were wounded in the attack as U.S. helicopters raked the Communist battalion with rockets and light bombers dropped 500-pound bombs. Communist fire damaged 14 helicopters.

In another weekend battle at Binh Ghia, 40 miles southeast of Saigon, government forces ambushed a Communist hamlet, killing 23 Viet Cong and seizing 16 civilian hostages. The government lost seven men and five were missing. Fourteen were wounded.

French Officials Deny De Gaulle's Threat To Bonn

PARIS (UPI) — French government sources today denied a reported threat by President Charles de Gaulle to denounce the French-German treaty of cooperation if West Germany joins the American-sponsored Multilateral Nuclear Force (MLF) project.

According to a published report, de Gaulle delivered the warning at a meeting with U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen. A United States embassy spokesman said he had no knowledge of the reported threat.

Bohlen called on de Gaulle Nov. 30 for what the U.S. embassy at the time described as a routine talk." He flew to Washington Dec. 3 for a 10-day private visit.

The U.S. embassy yesterday also denied knowledge of a London report that de Gaulle told Bohlen he would withdraw France from NATO by 1969.

Congo Rebels Might Get Soviet Arms Aid

CAIRO (AP) — The Soviet Union reportedly has agreed to help finance the growing arms airlift to the Congolese rebels.

An East European Communist diplomat said the Soviets agreed last weekend to replenish stocks of the Soviet-made weapons which Algeria and the United Arab Republic are shipping to Christophe Gbenye's forces. The Russians also reportedly will pay part of the airlift costs.

Communist China has supported the rebels through its embassy in Burundi, east of the Congo, but when the rebels were driven north toward the Sudanese border, the supply lines became difficult to maintain. The Chinese are reported trying to improve their supply, and the Soviets apparently are trying to counter this.

Witnesses have seen Soviet-built Antonov transports of Egyptian and Algerian registry ferrying weapons to the Congo through Khartoum and Juba, in Sudan.

The Soviet support of the airlift was negotiated in Cairo by rebel "defense minister" Gaston Soumialot and the Soviet ambassador to Egypt, Vladimir Erofeev.

In the former rebel capital of Stanleyville about 20 white mercenaries and a company of Congolese government soldiers crossed the Congo River in barges yesterday to clean out rebel snipers in the native quarter on the south bank.

Radio messages said about 80 rebels surrendered. One white soldier was wounded. Rebel casualties were not reported.

LBJ Will Confer With Russ Envoy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Lyndon B. Johnson will have Wednesday his first face-to-face encounter with a high Soviet official since the removal of former Soviet Nikita S. Khrushchev in October.

Johnson will meet at the White House with Russian foreign minister Andrei A. Gromyko "for a general discussion of matters of mutual interest between the two countries."

The visit was announced yesterday by White House press secretary George E. Reedy.

COURT RULES OUT FLORIDA RACE BAN

Justices Agree To Hear Cases On Red Mail, Estes' Trial, Birth Control Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court struck down as unconstitutional today a Florida law making it a crime for a man and woman of different races to live together.

The court, however, did not touch on the broader question of laws barring racially mixed marriages which are on the books of Florida and number of other states.

The unanimous decision limited itself to declaring that the Florida statute prohibiting a mixed couple to "habitually . . . occupy in the nighttime the same room" violated the equal protection of the law guarantee in the constitution.

In another action, the court agreed to hear a challenge to Connecticut's 85-year-old birth control law which forbids use of contraceptive devices. The court will hear arguments in the case and hand down an opinion later this session.

The court also:

Agreed to review the conviction to Texas financier Billie Sol Estes on a charge he swindled a Pecos, Tex., farmer. Estes, facing an eight-year prison sentence on the charge, complained that he was unable to obtain a fair trial because the court proceedings were televised.

Accepted for argument and later decision a case challenging a 1962 law restricting mail delivery of Communist propaganda from abroad. The appeal was brought by Corliss Lamont of New York. A special three-judge court dismissed his complaint earlier this year. Subsequently, a Los Angeles court declared the law unconstitutional.

Refused to accept a case in which the justice department claimed that the acceptance of federal grants for the education of military and other government dependents requires school desegregation.

Declined to hear an appeal from seven states based on an argument that inherent differences between Negroes and Whites might justify school segragation.

The Florida cohabitation opinion was delivered by Justice Byron R. White.

The ruling unanimously reversed the convictions of Dewey McLaughlin, a Honduran-born Negro and Connie Hoffman, a white woman. They were arrested in 1962 for living together in a Miami Beach apartment and were sentenced to 30 days in jail plus fines of $150 each.

New State Fair Opening Delayed 2 More Years

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Fair and Exposition Corp. has changed the opening date of the new exposition from 1966 to 1968.

The corporation's directors also announced yesterday that the exposition would not be a 33 million-dollar spectacle but would cost 100 million-dollars.

"Speed is imperative but it won't be allowed to take precedence over quality," said Board President Clarence Azevedo.

The corporation's new general manager, Eugene R. Lemmon, said he was to take over his new duties in February and "I expect that within 18 months we will have our master plan ready and at that time can program our construction."

SNOW JOB — Technically it's still autumn, but Congress Street in Portland, Me., looks as wintery as its Christmas decor. A northeast storm had workers out in force clearing away the snow.

East Coast Digs Out After Storms

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The latest December blast came after a week of wintry storms that pummeled every one of the 48 states at one time or another.

The Weather Bureau said the nation's weather "had settled down to a more quiet routine." But vestiges of the onslaughts of snow and cold remained.

An ice storm in New York State turned highways, ponds and fallen power lines into death traps and made widespread hardship. The death toll in New York alone stood at 12.

A state of emergency was in effect at Troy, Saratoga Springs, Schenectady, Gloverville and many small neighboring communities. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller took a first-hand look. It was estimated customers of the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. would have no lights, heat or water for two days to one week.

At Eastport, Me., 49 inches of snow were on the ground, of which 20 inches fell in 12 hours late yesterday. The mercury dropped to 21 below at Pellston, Mich., yesterday, and 4 below at Watertown, N.Y., early today. The reading of 17 below at Lansing, Mich., was a record low for December.

The St. Lawrence Seaway closed for the season, one day early. Two ocean liners were stranded—the Flying Independent near Detroit, and the Orient Merchant was in Lake Erie.

In frigid Chicago, on Saturday alone, six persons died in fires. Three were children of one family. In Bloomington, Calif., three small sisters died yesterday when fire swept their home.

In Indiana, weather conditions were blamed for two traffic accidents that claimed four lives. Three were members of one family whose small car went out of control on an ice-coated bridge and was struck broadside by another auto.

Annual GOP Luncheon Tomorrow

The annual meeting of the Marin Federated Republican Women will be held at noon tomorrow at Dominic's new Redwood Room in San Rafael.

The social hour starts at 11:30 a.m., with luncheon at 12 noon.

Mrs. Peter Caletti, Mrs. Matt Graham and Mrs. C. G. Williams are in charge of reservations.

Mrs. William H. MacKay, president, announced that the Marin Federated Republican Womens Clubs will be hosts at the northern division quarterly meeting of Republican women. This meeting is set for Feb. 9 and 10 at Bob's Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera.

Apartment Burglar Discovers $170 Cash

Someone entered the apartment of William A. Beatty of 55 Fairfax Street, Apt. 4, San Rafael, at 1 p.m. yesterday and stole $170 in bills from a bureau drawer, he told San Rafael police.

Police said there was no sign of forced entry.

FBI Evidence Due In Civil Rights Deaths

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) —The case of the three slain civil rights workers is heading toward its next climax Thursday when the government unveils evidence at a preliminary hearing.

Mississippi authorities await a look at the FBI evidence. They must decide if they will press murder charges—a state offense —against some of the 21 men arrested last Friday.

"The first thing I'm going to do," said Dist. Atty. W. H. Johnson Jr., "is review the evidence very, very carefully, and then make the decision on whether the state will take action."

Johnson said the FBI has given assurances it will turn over its evidence to the state.

The FBI has charged 19 men with violating the civil rights of the slain workers. Two other men were charged with being accessories. These are all federal charges. The preliminary hearing could be a delicate legal crossroad. It is scheduled in nearby Meridian before U.S. Commissioner Esther Carter.

Justice Department attorneys will try to put on enough testimony to convince the commissioner they have a strong enough case to warrant holding the 21 men for grand jury action.

On the other hand, it is expected that the government will be trying to hold back the bulk of its case—so as not to tip its hand.

While the government readies its case, a statewide defense fund is being organized for the defendants, five of whom, according to the FBI, are Ku Klux Klan members.

City Hotel Tax Hearing Tonight

The Corte Madera Town Council will hold hearings on two major proposed ordinances beginning at 8 p.m. today in the Town Hall.

The first hearing will be on a slope conservation ordinance, setting tight restrictions on residential development on steep land in the town. The second could make Corte Madera the first city in Marin County to adopt a hotel room tax.

Councilmen are also scheduled to discuss the recent action by the county board of supervisors changing supervisorial district boundaries, selection of an architect for design of a firehouse east of Highway 101, a budget for the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission and a new contract for planning consultants Livingstone and Blayney. The council meeting begins at 7:30 p.m.

Report Is Given On Rec Proposal

The Marin County Planning Commission, holding its first hearing on a recreation master plan today heard a report from the man who prepared it, planner Walter Horchler.

Despite state and federal parks, Marin still has insufficient facilities in upland areas, Horchler reported.

In the inland areas Horchler proposed the four regional parks be developed, a comprehensive recreation area at Chileno Creek on the Marin-Sonoma County line, parks at Deer-Park, Phoenix Lake, Nicasio Reservoir and Stafford Lake.

A Chileno Creek Reservoir would be "the most exciting," but development at Stafford Lake, near Novato, "has the most immediate potential.

Horchler also pointed out the need for boating facilities in Marin and suggested Marinas be constructed at Corte Madera to serve the Ross Valley, at Gallinas Creek to serve the Terra Linda, Santa Venetia and Marinwood area, and at Black Point to serve the Northern Marin boaters.

Marin county also is short of beach parks and if possible China camp should be rat retained, he said.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said the commission will conduct other hearings for comment on the plan.

"4. Cases of all students arrested in connection with the sitins in Sproul Hall Dec. 2-3 are now before the court. The university will accept the court's judgment in these cases as the full discipline for those offenses. In light of the cases now and prospectively before the court, the university will not prosecute. Charges against any student for action prior to Dec. 2-3. But the university will invoke disciplinary action for unlawful actions henceforth.

"5. All classes shall be conducted as scheduled."

Speaking to an overflow crowd of more than 13,000 at the university's Greek Theater—swelled because classes were recessed for the morning—Kerr spoke emotionally to his audience:

"Today we decide whether we shall move ahead productively and in peace or whether the anarchy or near anarchy of the past two months shall continue."

Mario Savio, leader of the revolt, was grabbed by police as he also tried to speak at the Greek Theater. He was hustled from the platform, struggling with officers.

As the crowd watched, Savio, who had been standing at the edge of the stage, moved toward the speaker's platform.

Prof. Robert A. Scalapino announced "the meeting is closed."

Savio got to the speaker's stand and started to talk. An officer pulled him back and others joined to remove Savio.

Many in the crowd booed and shouted "let him talk."

Savio earlier called the proposals "scandalous."

He blasted the plan as he and 767 others appeared for arraignment for participating in a 12-hour sit-in deconstration last week. On motion of the defense, Municipal Judge Rupert Crittenden continued the cases until 9 a.m. next Monday.

The shock-haired philosophy student charged that UC President Kerr, in endorsing the plan by department chairmen "is making a power play to preempt the function of the Academic Senate. He is making it impossible for the Academic Senate to do what it is supposed to do."

"Any solution must arise from below, from the students and faculty themselves," he told newsmen.

Kerr said his proposal "recognizes the harsh facts that the charges now before the court . . . are far more serious than those previously made by the university" against rule breakers.

Savio was cited for disciplinary action for his part in the Oct. 1-2 demonstration. He was among those arrested for last Thursday's sit-in.

Savio was not arrested today but was held by campus police for 10 minutes in a room back of the stage. Then he was released.

The crowd, still in the theater, shouted, "We want Mario."

Professor Scalapino spoke to the throng a moment, then permitted Savio to make two announcements.

He said the student Free Speech Movement would hold a rally at noon at Sproul Hall. He also said he had asked that he be permitted to speak after Kerr had finished, and his request had been denied.

Judge Crittenden had told the arrested demonstrators that the charges against them "may seriously affect you in the future."

Holding court in the 3,000-seat Berkeley Community Theater, Municipal Judge Crittenden warned the rebels the charges against them "can have serious consequences for you" and the ultimate decision they make "will be important for the rest of your life."

Accompanying it would be suggestions from the council arising from its public hearings. The city and county planning commissions would sit jointly, after initiation by Leydecker of action enabling consideration of the master plan by the county.

Thereafter the two commissions would make unified recommendations to supervisors and council, which also would hold one or more joint meetings. On final agreement the county board would adopt portions of the plan dealing with unincorporated territory and the city would adopt the entire plan, with immediate action inside present boundaries and an indication of intent as to areas still outside.

Similar joint proceedings and action, it was expected, would follow on adoption of zoning under the plan as well as zoning changes thereafter.

Marin Counsel Aide To Oppose Bus Rate Hikes

Marin County opposition to a proposed 20 per cent boost in Marin bus fares was to be voiced by deputy county counsel Richard V. Godino in the course of five days of State Public Utilities Commission hearings starting at 10 a.m. today in the State Building, San Francisco.

Following this week's hearings there will be an adjournment to January when further sessions will be held, Godino said today. He is attending in accordance with Marin Transit District board instructions last week to county counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

"Our best argument is that whenever there is such a drastic increase in rate this results in a big falling-off in number of passengers," said Godino.

"There have, it's true, been extra labor costs lately. But against the argument that Marin service runs at a loss there is the point that Greyhound Bus runs at a loss there is the point that Greyhound Bus Lines makes a good return on other phases of its operations."

Subdivision Gains For Horse Shoe Hill

Marin County planners today approved the tentative map of a subdivision in Horse Shoe Hill, north of Bolinas, over the protest of the Horse Shoe Hill Neighborhood Assn.

Alexander D. Calhoun, representing the association, said the proposed subdivision does not conform to the Bolinas-Stinson Beach Master Plan and ignores the problems of water supply and water disposal.

He noted that four wells in the area were temporarily dry last summer and that there is a risk of adding pollution to the Bolinas Lagoon.

The subdivision map, submitted by Elizabeth McDaniel, calls for a 17-acre parcel to be subdivided into five lots, between the upper and lower Bolinas roads.

Commissioners approved the tentative map on the condition that the area annex to the Bolinas Public Utility District and that the health department approves the sewage disposal facilities.

Chairman Niels Schultz Jr., said that the final map cannot be approved unless the conditions on water supply and waste disposal are met.

The vote for approval was 5-0 with commissioners George Scott and Felix Warburg absent.

ing. She was Mrs. Kathleen Woodard of Point Reyes, an attractive blonde who formerly worked as waitress at the King Cotton Restaurant in San Rafael.

It was at this restaurant on Jan. 28 of this year that Johnsen was involved in an incident with Charles M. Farmer, 30, a painter who now lives in Stockton. Johnsen was accused of hitting Farmer while Farmer was being held by a San Rafael police officer.

On the basis of this incident the sheriff fired Johnsen.

When a decision came at noon today, a brief exchange of words erupted between Sheriff Mountanos and Supervisor Ludy.

Sheriff Mountanos said he does not put a dollar and cent value on the jobs of officers. He said if any of his men from the under-sheriff down had done what Johnsen had, then he would have no recourse but to fire them.

"Heaven forbid if any deputy were to strike someone in jail with the attitude that 'I thought he was going to hit me first'," said Mountanos.

Ludy said dollar and cent value did not enter the picture at all.

"We just felt the punishment dealt out by the sheriff was more than sufficient," he said. "Evidence was just too damned flimsy."

Mountanos replied, "You're entitled to your opinion and I'm entitled to mine." He said the rule set up by the supervisors is that anything over a 15-day suspension is a dismissal—"that's the rule we're going to be governed by."

"The Soviet Union is consistent in its support for the struggle of the peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America for the right freely to determine their destiny," Gromyko said.

Delegates had hoped Gromyko would indicate whether the Russians were ready to compromise on the financial issue which he last week had agreed should be referred back to Secretary General Thant.

Incorporation Meeting Slated

The first public meeting concerning incorporation of the Alto-Strawberry-Bel Aire area will be held at 7:30 p.m., Friday at Bel Aire School, Stanley J. Gallagher, acting chairman of the incorporation committee, said today.

Gallagher, who lives in Strawberry at 241 Ricardo Road, said that all information gathered so far on the incorporation of a city of Alto first announced Oct. 20 will be discussed. There will be a question and answer period. "Every property owner should try to be present as this is vital to all concerning the future of our area," he said.

Meeting Delayed

Bolinas Beach Improvement Club members will meet Jan. 9, the second Saturday of the month, instead of its regular first Saturday because of New Year's Day holiday, Mrs. C. E. Froehlich, secretary, said today. The club held a Christmas party at its meeting Saturday.

deputies decided to go back to the Sapia house once more, if for no other purpose than to reassure the frantic young mother they were doing their best.

Little One headed for a corner of the Sapia's big, platform-like porch. The deputies, who had looked under the porch several times, tried to steer her away. But the bloodhound would not be steered.

The youngsters were shivering when the men pulled them out, and began to sob as they realized for the first time how long they had been there.

"They hadn't cried all day," their mother said. "They said they got scared when they realized everyone was looking for them, and they were afraid to come out."

Too relieved to spank them (as she had the previous time they ran away), Mrs. Sapia put Dianna and Brian in a hot bath to get rid of the day's accumulation of dirt.

The blond brother and sister were introduced to Little One. Brian and Dianna giggled as though nothing had happened. Their mother looked on and managed a feeble smile.

Then 30 chilled deputies, plus Little One and her talented nose, went home.

Skornia called for a senate reapportionment that includes "a compensating system of legislative checks and balances to preserve present state policy on the protection of water origins and other regional natural resources."

Valuable Canine, Liquor Stolen In 2 Burglaries

Theft or loss of a registered black Labrador dog valued at $1,000 was reported yesterday to Marin County sheriff's officers by Robert L. Mize, 821 Rosal Way, Santa Venetia.

Mize told officers the dog, Shady, was missing from the back yard early yesterday. He said a double-latched gate to the six-feet-high fence had been opened.

Deputies also reported a breakin of the home of Fred Horn, 44 Legend Road, Sleepy Hollow, which netted intruders an estimated $80 worth of liquor. Horn said entry was through his garage and the forcing of an inner door.

The burglary was reported Saturday.

Burglars Garner $1,200 From Bar On Highway 101

Burglars took approximately $1,200 from the Village Inn at 7425 Redwood Highway, Novato, sometime between 2 and 6 a.m. yesterday, Novato police reported today.

An employee, Thomas Alvia McClain Jr., 28, of 1814 Marion Street, Novato, discovered the front door and the cash drawer on the cash register both open when he started to work at 6 a.m.

David Lavell Crandall, 39, of 793 Eucalyptus Avenue, Novato, the owner, told police that the car had been closed at 2 a.m. by John Otis Decker, 54, of Petaluma. Decker said that he had double checked the front door before leaving.

There was no sign of a forced entry, according to police.

Christmas Tree Safety Is Urged

This is the solemn warning from Marin County fire chiefs, who are all too aware of what a tree fire can do.

These tips come from Capt. Henry Pierroz, Mill Valley fire prevention officer, and Capt. James Cameron of the Marinwood Fire Department:

Stand your tree in a bucket of water or sand. Use only Underwriters Laboratories approved lights, and make sure they have no frayed wire or loose sockets if they have been used before. Keep the tree away from radiators and the fireplace.

Turn off the lights when you leave or go to bed. Keep gift wrappings and electric trains away from the tree. Use fire resistant decorations. Don't overload circuits. Keep plenty of ashtrays so guests won't drop a hot cigarette ash.

Dutch Yule Helpers To Start At Party

Water Unit Discusses Annexation

Board members of the North Marin Water District discussed annexation of more land to the district with about 50 members of the Tomales Bay Assn. Friday at Marshall School.

Water District Manager Jerome Gilbert told the group that first step toward annexation of the Marshall and Dillon Beach areas would be an engineering study of the water development potential of the area. The dividing line between the North Marin district and the Marin Municipal Water District would be somewhere south of Marshall, he said, but an engineering study would determine this exactly.

Gilbert said that present water supplies are sufficient but if government predictions are correct, the area will eventually outgrow the supply, probabliy requiring dams and resevoirs.

Before the residents of the area petition for annexation, Gilbert said, the district would apply for approval of the plan from the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Former Death Row Inmate Dies In Prison

A 50-year-old San Quentin inmate, saved last year from the gas chamber by the signature of Gov. Edmund G. Brown, died early yesterday in the prison hospital of a liver disease.

William Lee Harrison convicted in 1962 of killing a woman friend in Alameda County, had been ill since early this year.

Harrison was once condemned to die, and his execution was scheduled for Oct. 8, 1963. Four days earlier, Governor Brown commuted the sentence to life imprisonment without possibility of parole, on grounds that psychiatric tests showed he had suffered "chronic brain damage."

Brown said the psychiatric evidence indicated Harrison was less able than a normal person to handle his emotions.

Harrison was a native of San Antonio, Tex. He is survived by a brother, Ernest Harrison of Berkeley.

MUSIC CENTER — Glittering audience of 3,200 attended last night's opening of new Los Angeles music center, core of what eventually will be a center for the performing arts much like New York's Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

Culture Comes To Los Angeles: $33 Million Music, Art Center

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A fresh breath of culture blew into the City of the Angeles last night with the gala formal opening of the 33.5 million dollar Center for the Performing Arts.

An elite crowd of 3,250 persons headed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown and his wife attended the first performance given in the 22 million dollar pavilion at which violinist Jascha Heifetz played Beethoven's "Violin Concerto No. 1 in D Minor."

When the formally attired guests were seated in the glass and granite structure, youthful Indian - born conductor Zubin Mehta led the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra in the Star Spangled Banner. This was followed by Richard Strauss' "Fanfare."

The audience laughed.

But the important acoustical question had been answered.

"We (musicians) know that you have waited years for this," Mehta continued. "We, too, have waited, and I, myself, who have been here only a few years, could hardly wait. . . .

"But I do not think that any of you in your most fantastic dreams could have hoped anything like this would happen," he said with a dramatic sweep of his hands.

"This is the most unique city in the 20th century. I do not think it is too late now, in mid-century, to begin a new cultural life. This evening, we are going to usher in a new era."

The ushering-in of the new cultural era, was scheduled to go on for the remainder of the week. Tonight's guest artist will be pianist Van Cliburn. Others this week include Nat King Cole, Count Basie, Tony Bennett and Diahann Carroll. A light opera "Album" Saturday and Sunday night will highlight 200 years of musical theater.

But no matter what follows in the years ahead for the music center, the opening night probably will never be topped in California for the collection of fame, glitter and wealth assembled under one roof.

The pavilion's first ovation was accorded to Mrs. Norman Chandler, wife of the chairman of the board of the Los Angeles Times, who, as president of the Southern California Symphony Assn., was the person most singly responsible for construction of the center.

The center, when completed in 1966, will resemble a 20th century version of the Acropolis — birthplace of the world's cultural heritage. Like its ancient counterpart in Athens, the center sits atop a hill overlooking downtown Los Angeles.

The other two central buildings — the 2,100-seat center theater and the 750-seat Mark Taper forum — haven't been completed. When they are, the complex will provide Los Angeles with permanent facilities for musical, dramatic and terpsichorean recitals.

Belvedere Council To Study Drain Proposal

The Belvedere City Council will meet at 8 p.m. today at the Community Hall and will hear an engineer's report on a proposed storm drainage system.

Also on the agenda is discussion of the city boundary with Tiburon. The present boundary leaves little commercial area in Belvedere councilmen also will consider a request by the Mill Valley Garbage Co. to raise collection fees.

SYMPHONY REVIEW

Requiem Makes Brilliant Debut

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Marin's 13th annual symphony season opened brilliantly last night with the most ambitious undertaking in its history.

This was the Northern California premiere of Benjamin Britten's "War Requiem," which drew an audience of more than 2,000 to the Redwood High School gymnasium in Larkspur.

It was by far the largest number ever to attend a Marin Symphony Orchestra concert, and we believe it was probably the most elaborate musical event staged by amateurs in the history of the county.

Credit for tackling this enormously difficult project goes to Winifred Baker. Its success was due to the superb direction of Sandor Salgo, Winifred Baker's assistance as associate conductor and to the hard work of 241 professional and amateur musicians, including three top soloists, soprano Gwen Curatilo, baritone Byron Jones and tenor Edward Jameson.

In this deeply moving requiem that combines Wilfred Owen's poetry and the form of the Latin Mass for the dead, the 89 - voice Winifred Baker Chorale and 68 - piece Marin Symphony Orchestra achieved some memorable effects both in the great climaxes such as the one in the sanctus and in the final hushed ames.

The choruses and orchestras fully met the challenge of this music in the modern idiom which has difficult harmony, intricate rhythms and extra-ordinary orchestration.

Inclusion of the text in the program was an excellent idea for two reasons. The first was that the work was unfamiliar to most of the audience, with choruses and soprano solos sung in Latin. The second was that it made possible a better appreciation of the full power of the poems in English written by Owen, who was killed in World War I just before the armistice.

Byron Jones deserves special mention for his exceptionally fine diction, which, together with the rich quality of his voice, made these words profound.

Edward Jameson's vocality was beautiful, but he could not be understod part of the time.

Winifred Baker's precise conducting of the 12 - piece chamber orchestra that accompanied the baritone and tenor solos set the right rhythem and tempo.

Directed by assistant conductor Betty Jo Barnes, the 65 - voice Winifred Baker Children's Chorus gave another astonishly disciplined performance singing entirely from memory — this time in Latin.

Both in tonal quality and technical command Gwen Curatilo's singing was one of the most impressive parts of the performance.

Though the performance rated a well deserved standing ovation at the end, individual reaction probably varied according to seating in the gymnasium, for many experienced difficulties due to acoustics.

Never has the need for a large enough and acoustically adequate concert hall in Marin been so obvious.

Mail Boxes Downed

The Mill Valley Post Office reported to police at 11:05 a.m. Saturday that eight mail boxes had been torn down between 161 and 241 on Summit Avenue.

Strawberry Save-The-Bay Drive Opens

Strawberry housewives have organized an anti-bay fill petition campaign which in the past three days, the women say, has gained at least 755 signatures.

Mrs. Robert M. Allen, 301 East Strawberry Drive, who won fame last week for fighting through mud to serve an injunction stopping dredging in one area off Strawberry, and Mrs. Donald J. DeGeller, 32 Harbor Cove Way, organized the campaign.

About 25 volunteer housewives and, in the evening, their husbands, circulated the petitions mainly on the Strawberry Peninsula but also in parts of Mill Valley and in the Reedlands, Little Reed Heights, Hawthorne Terrace, Bay Vista on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The campaign will continue right up to the time the petitions are to be presented to Marin County Board of Supervisors at their meeting tomorrow, Mrs. DeGeller said.

The petitions ask that supervisors "halt the despoiling of Richardson Bay by revoking or cancelling" the permit for dredging granted to Harbor Cove, Inc.

The petition states that signers are "convinced the halting of any further filling of Richardson Bay, or any part thereof, is of vital interest to the public welfare, to the health and safety of the residents, and is necessary to preserve the unique natural resources of Marin County."

Petition signers also state by signing that they favor a moratorium on bay fill for an unspecified time. Mrs. DeGeller reported that she had counted 755 signatures so far and that some petitions still are being circulated.

Also at the supervisors meeting Tuesday at the Civic Center, the City of Tiburon and the Strawberry Recreation District will present their stands for purchase of the 14 acres of land which now is to dredged or filled.

An appeal last week for funds to continue the anti-fill fight by Strawberry residents has so far brought one contribution of $25, Mrs. DeGeller said.

CHRISTMAS QUARTET — For the first time in history, the U. S. Post Office has issued a four-stamp set for Christmas, with each sheet featuring designs involving green and red holly, mistletoe, poinsettia and pine cones. However, Rep. Melvin R. Laird (R-Wisc.), still argues that a Nativity scene should be printed. (AP Wirephoto)

Lawmaker Criticizes Yule Stamp Designs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Melvin R. Laird today criticized the 1964 Yuletide postal stamp and urged issuance of Christmas stamps with a religious theme such as a Nativity scene — "not the commercialized symbol of a Christmas tree or Santa Claus."

In a letter to Postmaster General John A. Gronouski, the Wisconsin Republican said many controversial issues have arisen in recent years over the principle of separation of church and state.

"There is one issue, however, over which there should be no controversy because it in no way concerns the separation of church and state," Laird wrote.

He has urged for years, Laird said, and in the past has introduced legislation calling on the Post Office Department to use the Nativity scene on its annual Christmas stamp.

The Post Office Department's special stamp committee, Laird said, turned down the Nativity scene for a Christmas stamp on the basis that would commemorate a religious holiday.

"This argument has no relevance to this issue," he wrote.

"Christmas is celebrated each year to honor the birthday of Jesus. Even those who do not acknowledge Him as the Son of God recognize that He was a great figure in history.

"A Christmas stamp commemorating His birthday should in some way convey that fact and not the commercialized symbol of a Christmas tree or Santa Claus."

Christ is the spiritual leader of millions of Americans and of millions the world over, Laird said.

Christmas mailers will have a choice of four seasonal red and green 5-cent stamps. The Post Office Department says the design is the first time in its history that such a four-in-one issue has been offered.

Car Theft Solved Before Reported

A San Rafael man reported his 1949 Chevrolet stolen at 3:42 p.m. Saturday, 10 hours after Marin County Sheriff's deputies had recovered the car and charged two men with its theft.

San Rafael police said the report was filed by Earl A. Patterson of 720 B Street.

Jailed were Gary William Motchar, 20, of 123 Auburn Street, California Park, and Woodrow W. Fitzsimmons, 21, of 830 B Street, San Rafael.

Deputies arrested them at 5:46 a.m. Saturday on North San Pedro Road. They said Fitzsimmons admitted stealing the car, but Motchar denied it.

Ex-Convict Lawmaker Arrested

DETROIT (UPI) — Federal agents today arrested State Rep. Daniel W. West, (D-Detroit), unmasked over the weekend as an ex-convict, on charges he was involved in a federal tax swindle.

West was taken into custody by federal agents immediately following an appearance in recorder's court on charges of aiding and abetting the false registration of voters in the September primary.

West, revealed as an ex-convict who served time for burglary, forgery and housebreaking, had gained respectability by stealing the background of a brilliant New York lawyer now dead.

The Internal Revenue Service said it had West under investigation for some time. He was to be arraigned in federal court at 3 p.m. on the tax charge.

In recorder's court, Judge Arthur J. Koscinski denied a motion by West's attorney to quash the warrant. The attorney then asked that the trial be postponed indefinitely. Koscinski granted a one-week delay. Minutes later, the federal agents took West into custody.

Counties May Get Urban Unit Funds

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A state legislator said today California's counties are now eligible to receive new types of financial grants under a federal program designed to assist them to chart the orderly development of urban communities.

Assemblyman John T. Knox (D-Richmond), said he was informed of the federal grants in a letter from Urban Renewal Commissioner William L. Slayton.

The 1963 legislature established local agency formation commissions in each county in an effort to control the effects of urban sprawl. Each commission is composed of county supervisors, city councilmen and a public representative.

Their duty is to evaluate, from a county-wide viewpoint all requests to form new cities or special districts.

Knox, chairman of the Municipal and County Government Committee, said in a statement:

"The formation commissions have worked well, but they have an obvious need to accumulate a reserve of information upon which to base their judgments. . . .

"The cost of gathering all this necessary data, especially in heavily urbanized counties, can place an added strain on the already overburdened property tax. The availability of federal grants . . . will enable our counties and our formation commissions to finance a major part of such data-gathering activities without added costs to the property taxpayer."

State GOP Ends Conclave With Plan Of Action

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Leaders of the United Republicans of California ended a weekend convention by adopting a three-point program to step up political activity within the state.

The program adopted Sunday includes one action—forming a coordinating council of major volunteer Republican organizations—and two proposals: Creation of a 15-minute weekly television program and operation of a research and public opinion office in Sacramento, both to present the conservative view on news and state issues.

The organization's board of governors voted to finance these activities by increasing dues from $2 to $5 per year for the 12,000 members.

British Leaders To Visit India Soon

Shastri made the statement upon his return to New Delhi from talks in London with Wilson. No date was set for the India visit.

Baker Probers May Continue

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate rules committee hopes to wind up its second Bobby Baker investigation this week—but the tantalizing "party girl" issue may keep the case alive right into the new Congress.

Only three witnesses remain on the list to be called when public hearing resume tomorrow: Lobbyist Wayne Bromley, a former Senate employee, and two officials of the federal housing agency, Robert Berman and C. Franklin Daniels.

But the Justice Department has decided to permit the committee to inspect its files on Mrs. Ellen Rometsch, a German beauty who is the "mystery woman" of the case. Her name pops up frequently in speculation as to how Baker operated.

Motivators Talk

Boyd O. Whitney, manager of Success Motivators Institute of Waco, Tex., will discuss "Helping People to Help Themselves" at a meeting to the Marin County Real Estate Board at 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael.

Full-Scale Attack On School Dropouts Urged

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Federal and state officials, attending a Conference on the Urban School Crisis, have urged a full-scale attack on the high rate of students who drop out of high schools.

John F. Henning, undersecretary of labor, told the conference Saturday that one-third of out-of-school youths in the 16 to 24 age bracket have not finished high school.

"A free society cannot resign itself to such waste of mind and spirit," Henning said.

Pointing to the correlation between lack of formal education and unemployment, Henning said, "Nothing less than the reformation of elementary and secondary education can save us from the terror of urban conflict and protest."

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Inglewood), suggested higher salaries for teachers in slum areas to attract a high quality of teachers in such areas.

"Of all our messy problems," Unruh said, "the urban school crisis stands at or right next to the top."

Hale Champion, state director of finance, said top priority should be given to a full-scale compensatory education effort for disadvantaged children.

The conference was sponsored jointly by the California Teachers Assn. and the National Education Assn. Nearly 400 educators, legislators and business leaders attended.

Mother Charged As Shoplifter

Helen Ann Brubaker, 38, of 9 Mount Burney Court, San Rafael, was booked by San Rafael police at 12:53 p.m. Friday on a charge she stole $8.77 worth of items from Macy's, Fourth and Court streets.

Police said Mrs. Brubaker was booked on a citizen's arrest by store security officer Beatrice M. Fleming, who said she saw the woman take a hair piece and a pair of sun glasses from the store.

Student Killed By Quick-Draw

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—Jay Delong, 21, Montclair, Calif., was fatally shot last night when he and his University of Arizona roommate were practicing quick draws with a .22-caliber pistol.

Police said Delong apparently died instantly when he was hit in the right side.

Delong's roommate, Bill Keffer, 24, told officers he and Delong had been practicing quick draws for about 15 minutes. He said just as he drew, Delong stepped in front of him and the gun went off.

Police said no charges had been filed, but the incident was still under investigation.

He was taken to Marin General Hospital and treated for multiple bruises and scrapes and a cut face.

No Turnover Seen In Pentagon Brass Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department team of top civilian leaders, headed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, is expected to remain intact at least until mid-1965.

McNamara reportedly has discussed with key members of his team his wish that they stay on and see the Pentagon's programs through the Congress next session. They were said to have agreed.

This is taken to mean that McNamara himself intends to remain in office at least that long.

Associates said they had been unable to detect any signs that McNamara is thinking of stepping out. He is nearing the end of his fourth year as secretary of defense, still well short of the record of 56 months set by Charles E. Wilson in the Eisenhower administration.

The only member of McNamara's top group to resign recently was Thomas D. Morris, assistant secretary of defense for installations and logistics. He will be succeeded by Paul Ignatius, who is being promoted from undersecretary of the Army.

A change in the military high command will come in early February when Gen. Curtis E. LeMay retires as Air Force chief of staff.

Gen. John P. McConnell, who has been the Air Force's second in command since midsummer, is likely to succeed LeMay.

Adm. David L. McDonald will finish a two-year term as chief of naval operations in June. He probably will be given a second term.

Otherwise, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler is only a few months into his term as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The same goes for Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff. Gen. Wallace M. Greene, Marine Corps commandant, still has three more years to go in a four-year term.

Population Soaring

WASHINGTON (AP) — The population of the world in mid-1964 was an estimated 3,283,000,000 and it is growing at the rate of about 65 million a year. In 1980 it is expected to hit 4.3 billion. The figures, compiled primarily from United Nations estimates, were released by the Population Reference Bureau to point out the long-range problems posed by the global population increase.

McNAMARA'S FORECAST: $50 MILLION

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says he hopes to keep the defense budget next year to slightly below 50 billion dollars.

After checking over budget figures for two hours at the White House with President Lyndon B. Johnson on Saturday, McNamara said recent economies in the Defense Department will permit a substantial cut in new spending authority requested for the fiscal year which begins next July 1.

He said the most recent estimate of spending for the present year is 49.8 billion dollars and the new budget should be close to that.

Do Anzacs Have The Teen-Age Problem?

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (AP)—The Post Office claims third world position for New Zealand in the number of telephones per head of population — just ahead of Canada, but behind the United States and Sweden.

The Post Office said 902,000 telephones are installed for the 2,500,000 New Zealanders.

Press Rules Ordered By Justice Department Aide

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — What a federal prosecutor may and may not tell news media has been spelled out in a memorandum from U.S. Atty. Jon O. Newman.

Newman told his six assistants in Connecticut that in order to ensure fair trials, prosecutors will not tell newsmen of confessions, statements of witnesses, or reports of investigations.

A prosecutor should not even tell reporters whether he has such documents, Newman said, and should make no mention of any criminal record of a suspect.

He said disclosure of information about criminal charges involves two "competing interests." These he identified as "the defendant's right to a fair trial and the public's right to know."

In order to ensure the right to know, prosecutors may continue to give out such information as the nature of charges filed, the essential facts of an alleged crime, and the name, age and address of an adult defendants, Newman said.

"The defendant has a right to have the issue of his innocence or guilt determined by a jury that is free of the prejudice that is so easily stirred by publicity before and during a trial," Newman said.

Radar Punctured By His Bullets

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Douglas H. Lynch, 48, an unemployed welder from McDonald, Pa., who admitted he shot holes in a radar bubble at a nearby Army missile base, faces a hearing tomorrow night before Squire Lawrence Morgan in Carnegie.

Lynch, who was reported to be under a doctor's care, told police he fired at the dome about 25 times with a 22-caliber rifle because it was sending out "laser beams" which were affecting his mind.

Lynch was held in lieu of $2,000 bond after a preliminary hearing. He was arrested Saturday by military police and turned over to state police.

CARPET & UPHOLSTERY SERVICE

Your PG&E bill goes up in the winter, too.

Colder temperatures and longer nights increase your use of gas and electricity for heating and lighting your house. You spend more time indoors reading, cooking hot meals, using radio and TV sets and appliances. And that means a bigger PG&E bill. (In the spring, your bill starts down again.) But since 1961, there have been 3 major reductions in PG&E rates. Today the typical customer pays less than 30 years ago for the same amount of gas and electricity. Which means, whatever the season, PG&E service is a bigger bargain than ever.

Redwood Students Turn Teachers Once A Week

By KIM CAMERON
Redwood High School Student

Students turn teacher once a week at Richardson Bay, where many Redwood High School students are acting as tutors in the Marin City Study Center.

They devote their time to improving the academic skills of those with environmental disadvantages.

Among the high school students acting as tutors are Redwood students Kate deFremery, Ann Hughes, Clair Imbert, Sue Maclise, Marla Rajewski, Rachel Rice, Sally Schullerts, Juliann Siple, Candy Tuttle, Wendy Williams, and Frances Young. Other tutors are from Tamalpais High School.

"I feel that it is a necessity to have this tutoring program," stressed," said Frances Young. "Though it is difficult to measure our progress thus far, I am sure that every one of us has gotten as much out of it as we have tried to give our students."

Since October, 1963, the study center has met regularly except for school holidays. Some tutors and students have been present at every session. Every Monday and Tuesday, tutors and students meet at Richardson School, and each student is given individual help with homework.

"We don't really teach them any one subject but mainly how to study and help answer the questions for themselves," explained Sue Maclise. "The children are interested and are willing to learn which is one of its main rewards."

The emphasis is not to improve grades, but to change attitudes and increase motivation for learning.

Outside interests as well as school studies are discussed. One girl, with the help of a tutor, was able to write a play for the Parent-Teacher Assn. Another, was helped with a dance that she performed. Jacki, who was having trouble in math, was taught how to factor numbers and is now quite adept in geometry.

This program is a community project with a joint effort of various community groups within the Marin City community and also outside.

The study center occupies six classrooms along with having the use of the school library. Plans for the future include films, speakers and field trips to aid in study.

Sally Schullerts' comment was, "It certainly gives us a basic understanding and first-hand knowledge of the educational situation in our immediate area—something of which we all should have an extremely good idea."

Birth Defects Can Cause Severe Emotional Woes

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Birth defects can cause severe emotional problems for the child and family involved, leaders of the National Foundation — March of Dimes were told here today.

The March of Dimes leaders are here for a three-day conference on birth defects.

Young couples expect to have a normal child and if the infant is born with a defect the shock is overwhelming, said Dr. William D. Sherman of the University of Washington School of Medicine.

"Guilt feelings and doubts arise," he said. Even today many people say or intimate that deformed children are punishment for sins of the parents."

A marriage which survives the crisis usually becomes a far deeper and better marriage for the experience, the instructor in psychiatry and pedriatrics said.

The effect of physical disfigurement or deformity on the individual can range from mild-self-consciousness to near total withdrawal from society, said Dr. Robert W. DeVito, also of the University of Washington School of Medicine.

Surgical correction of physical deformity is desirable whenever a reasonable procedure can offer sufficient improvement in appearance so that greater emotional security and happiness can be anticipated," he said.

Foundation president Basil O'Connor told the delegates that researchers have identified more than 1,000 types of birth defects.

Medical advisers estimated in 1958 that 250,000 infants are born with significant defects in the United States each year, he said.

"We have reason to believe that estimate actually understated the problem by a wide margin," O'Connor said.

Blood Donations Appeal Sounded

Mrs. John A. Thomson of Mill Valley today issued a plea for blood donations for her cousin, Charles H. Dana Jr., 19, of Orinda, a student of Diablo Valley College who was stabbed in mid October by two assailants in Berkeley.

Mrs. Thomson, who lives at 266 Hillside Avenue, said donations may be made at Marin Blood Center, 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, in her cousin's name.

Dana who is reported in satisfactory condition and improving is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Huguenin and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dana, all of Inverness.

San Rafael Resident Reported Improving

George Ranck, 60, of 203 Locust Avenue, San Rafael, was reported "improving" today at Children's Hospital in San Francisco after suffering an apparent heart attack at 12:40 a.m. today.

A resusciator unit from the San Rafael Fire Department responded to a call from the home and Ranck was taken by ambulance to the San Francisco hospital.

U.C. Tribute Paid To Professor Wurster

A memorial tribute to Catherine Bauer Wurster, University of California professor found dead from exposure on the western slope of Mount Tamalpais late last month, was held yesterday at the university's Wurster Hall in Berkeley where Mrs. Wurster had offices.

A crowd of 600 including students and members of both administration and faculty told of Mrs. Wurster's love of the Bay Area and the significance of her work as associate dean of the College of Environmental Design.

In Critical Condition

Robert Bergquist, 43, of 128 Willow Avenue, Corte Madera, was reported in critical condition today at Marin General Hospital after being admitted Saturday for swallowing carbon tetrachloride at his home.

Unruh Sees Trouble Signs For Democrats

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"The trouble signs for the Democratic Party in 1965 and 1966 are plain to see," says Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh.

The Inglewood Democrat made the comment in addressing fellow Southern California party leaders in a post-election meeting Saturday.

"There is no future for the party in California if we go on behaving as we have for the past year or more," Unruh said.

His thinking was shared by Democratic National Committeeman Eugene L. Wyman, who said, "Unless we start now to rebuild toward the 1966 elections, we face a return to Republican control of California."

He and Unruh noted that although President Lyndon B. Johnson had little trouble winning big in California, the Democrats lost a seat in the U.S. Senate and some in the Assembly.

Unruh urged an end to preprimary endorsements, among other things. He also called for more party unity and more respect for the other man's viewpoints.

Neighbor Thwarts Breakin At Store

Someone tried to break into Catania Sound, 1541 Fourth Street, San Rafael, at 7:35 p.m. yesterday, but was apparently foiled when a man in an apartment above the store heard the sound of a glass door being smashed.

Ronald M. Rimer of Chatsworth told police he rushed downstairs, but saw no one. Police said nothing was missing from the store.

NAVAL OFFICER — Michael A. Klapak of 27 Camino de Herrera, San Anselmo, has been commissioned an ensign after being graduated from the Navy Officer Candidate School in Newport, R.I. He was then assigned to the Naval Supply School at Athens, Ga. Klapak received a bachelor's degree in June from Kansas State Teachers College.

Novato Area Resident Returns From Rome

Paul Brindel of 133 Maestro Road, Novato, returned home late Friday night from Rome where he had been attending the Ecuminical Council.

Brindel contracted some undiagnosed illness in Rome and has been confined to his bed since returning to Novato.

GOP Governors Hurt Support For Burch

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican governors have started a fire within their party that could make it difficult for National Chairman Dean Burch to command the broad-base support he needs to hold his job.

Although they stopped short in a declaration at Denver, Colo., Saturday of calling collectively for Burch's resignation, there appeared to be majority belief among the 18 who attended that after Burch canvasses the situation thoroughly he may decide to step out.

This was based in part on reports given the governors in closed session that as many as 70 of the 138-member Republican National Committee may favor replacement of Burch.

Burch's own canvass of his strength within the committee was said to have been somewhat disappointing to him.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, former head of the committee, made the point on a television broadcast yesterday that the chairman has to have broad support within the committee. He added he didn't know anybody "who would want want to stay in that position that didn't have support of his own committee."

Morton, who had announced his backing of Burch, said it is up to the members of the National Committee and no one else to determine whether Burch should be replaced.

He added: "He must have broad support in the National Committee itself, he must have broad support among the Republican governors, the Republican mayors, Republican leaders, state chairmen, vice chairmen, Young Republicans and all."

Although the governors avoided naming Burch in a declaration setting out their ideas about revising the party leadership, it seemed clear a majority were not offering the chairman the kind of "broad support" Morton said was necessary.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan said in a national telecast he is convinced a majority of the National Committee members want Burch to go. Romney was joined by Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, Robert E. Smylie of Idaho and some others in saying Burch must go. Sen. Barry Goldwater, the defeated GOP presidential nominee, has said he is standing firmly behind Burch. But even some of Goldwater's firmest supporters among the governors qualified their endorsement of the national chairman.

Gov. Tim Babcock of Montana said Burch should have the opportunity to end "the fractionalism which is disrupting us." If the chairman can't do that, Babcock said, he would expect Burch "to step down for the good of the party and I would be among those asking him to do so."

Gov. Clifford Hansen of Wyoming, who opposed efforts by Smylie and others to put the governors association on record for Burch's ouster, said a statement approved unanimously by the chief executives laid down broad leadership guidelines and the chairman "should be guided by them or get out."

Gov.-elect William Avery of Kansas said that if Burch found the declaration "incompatible" he should quit.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Party Leader Sacked In New Russ Shakeup

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Communist Party boss of Russia's trouble-ridden "Virgin Lands" republic has been sacked in a new shakeup, the official news agency Tass reported today.

Dinmukhamed A. Kunayev has been namedt o replace Ismail Y. Yusupov as the top party official in the Kazakhstan Republic in Soviet Central Asia, Tass said.

Under former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, thousands of acres of pasture land were ploughed up in the republic—and planted with grain.

This year Kazakhstan was reported to have delivered a high yield, although it was plagued with serious drought in 1963.

But the new shakeup was viewed here by diplomatic observers as the aftermath of Khrushchev's ouster and a result of the chronic difficulties that have beset the area.

The reshuffle in Kazakhstan was the latest move of the new Kremlin leadership following Khrushchev's Oct. 14 ouster.

Tass said Kazakhstan Deputy Premier M. Beisebayev has now been moved up to premier of the republic.

Diplomatic sources considered it interesting that Kunayev served during the Khrushchev era and until 1962 as the Communist boss of this vast region.

But he was relieved in December, 1962, ostensibly "in connection with an appointment of another job."

Kunayev had been repeatedly criticized by the Soviet press, and on several occasions by Khrushchev himself, for delays in gathering the harvest.

Western observers said they believed his dismissal in 1962 was linked with other failures in implementing Khrushchev's grandiose scheme for putting thousands of virgin acres under the plough.

Tangle With Car Injures Cyclist

A San Rafael man suffered a scraped right ankle and a puncture wound on the left leg when his motorcycle fell on him after it grazed a car on Mary Street in San Rafael Friday morning.

Police, who did not investigate the accident at the time, said the car's driver later identified himself as Thomas A. Guerin of 33 Manderly Road, San Rafael.

Hurt was Thomas M. Latorre of 87 Robin Hood Drive.

Latorre and Guerrin, who filed an accident report later, told police the mishap occurred between San Pedro Road and Fourth Street.

Gasoline Fumes Cause Car Fire

A Tiburon man's attempt to clean the fuel pump from his car turned to smoke and flame Saturday.

Tiburon firemen said E. C. Cleveland's car was parked near the garage, not far from the furnace in his home at 2130 Mar East.

As he cleaned the fuel pump, gasoline fumes trailed across the garage to the furnace pilot light. In a few minutes, a "flashback" resulted, and it led straight to the gas tank of Cleveland's 1954 Jaguar convertible.

The blaze did $350 damage to the rear end and interior before firemen got it out.

A 5-year-old Kentfield boy suffered a cut forehead when the car in which he was riding crashed into the rear of another car on Laurel Grove Avenue near Canyon Road in Ross.

Edmund L. Dixon, 5, was riding in the front seat of the car driven by his mother, Mrs. Janet L. Dixon of 22 Kakin Grade, Kentfield.

Roses police said the boy was thrown in to the windshield when the car struck one driven by Adelaide Wartman, 56, of El Cerrito.

The youngster was treated at Ross General Hospital after being taken there by a passerby. Police cited Mrs. Dixon for following too closely.

Woman Supplies Clue To San Quentin Flight

Cecil Fred Pillow, 34, walked away from the minimum security ranch near the prison Friday night.

San Rafael police said today they received a telephone call from the woman, who said her boy friend, himself an ex-convict, had taken her newly purchased car and gone away with Pillow.

Since she lived outside the city limits, police made no formal report, advising the woman to file a stolen car report with the Marin County Sheriff's Office. They passed the information along to prison officials, however.

Pillow, serving a five-year-to-life sentence for assault with a deadly weapon in a Fresno County brawl in 1957, had lived in San Rafael for several months on two past occasions when he was out on parole.

He is six feet tall, weighs 152 pounds, is slender, with brown hair, brown eyes and ruddy complexion.

Trustees To Select Aide For District

The new Novato Unified School District Board will probably select a superintendent for the new district at 8:30 p.m. today in the library of the Meadow Park School in the San Jose District.

This board meeting will follow immediately after a short meeting of the San Jose District board in the same room.

Trustees have scheduled a closed session as the first item of business.

The board of the new district interviewed Supt. Ralph Giovanniello of the San Jose District and Supt. James G. Bunker of the old Novato District at its last meeting.

The trustees will also discuss the future building program for the combined San Jose and Novato Unified School Districts.

A building program report will be made by Giovanniello at the regular meeting of the district board at 8 p.m.

Marinite's Body Found After Leap

The body of H. J. Larson of 68 Willow Avenue was recovered by the Coast Guard at 10:39 a.m. as it was being carried toward Alcatraz by incoming tides.

Bridge officials said two motorists saw Larson stop his car on the northbound side of the bridge. They said he got out and leaped over the rail without hesitating.

A sealed letter was found in the car, officials said, but details of its contents were not available by noon today.

Larson was the 277th person known to have jumped from the bridge in its 27-year history.

Wheel, Tire Stolen

Someone stole a tire and wheel from the station wagon of Fong L. Wong of 914 Lootens Place, San Rafael, Friday night as it was parked behind the Wing Sing Laundry, same address, Wong told police.

New ABC's Aide To Talk With Teachers

An expert on a new style alphabet to aid children in learning to read will explain the program to Marin County teachers tomorrow.

John Downing, research director for the Institute of Reading at the University of London will tell of the new method in a workshop for all district teachers at 3:45 p.m. tomorrow at Granada School in Reed Union School District. The meeting is sponsored by the office of the county superintendent of schools.

Wednesday from 9 a.m. to noon Downing will speak to all kindergarten and first grade teachers in the Reed District, whose classes will have substitute teachers.

The program is called ITA for Initial Teaching Alphabet, an alphabet with 43 characters, each symbol standing for a sound. The program is being used in a first grade school in Bayside School in the Sausalito School District and in the kindergarten and first grades of Belvedere and Tiburon schools in the Reed District.

Car Club's Boys Give Santa Hand

Eighteen members put redwood garlands and lights along the sidewalks, placed lights on trees and painted and decorated Santa's house in front of the the chamber of commerce office under supervision of G. W. Robertson.

Praising the boys was Danny J. Malugani Jr., chairman of the chamber's decorations committee, who said, "the boys' object is to do good and help anywhere they can." The Chauffeurs are headed by Randy White.

Red China Trade

TOKYO (UPI)—Japan and Communist China today signed a trade agreement under which Japan will import iron ore and coal and will sell Peking steel products worth 12.25 million dollars.

Tam Area Litter Again Is Topic For Trustees

Trustees of the Tamalpais Union High School District tonight will again take up the complaints of residents near Tamalpais High School that students are littering streets and yards in the homestead areas.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at district headquarters in Larkspur.

The school board will also consider a plan for measuring "professional growth" of teachers, requiring any teacher with less than 25 years experience in high school teaching to gain the equivalent of four college units credit every four years.

A committee studying the problem for the last several years has recommended, however, that travel, publication, service in educational organizations or community service may be used, instead of formal college education.

MAKING LIKE A BIRD

Top German Soldier Backs U.S. Atom Plan

BONN (AP)—The chief officer of West Germany's Army said today he approves the Multi-Lateral Nuclear Force (MFL) for NATO because it would tie the United States to Europe. He said Europe cannot defende itself alone.

Lt. Gen. Ulrich de Maiziere, inspector general of the German Army, expressed the view in an interview with United Press International.

His view as a military man is parallel to that of the political leadership of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

"Let me put it this way," the general said, "there can be no European security without an American presence in Europe. There can be no American presence in Europe in the absence of European unity. There can be no European unity in the absence of German-French friendship."

De Maiziere went no further into the question, but his political chiefs are at odds with France about the MLF — the force of 25 vessels armed with Polaris missiles and manned by International crews which the Americans have proposed be assigned to Europe's defense. France considers the MLF "divisive."

The General is usually referred to as a "reformer," but prefers to be described as "a modern soldier."

"We sought," he recalls of the planning days, "to work out a conception for fitting the armed forces into a democratic order, and in the internal structure of the troops to find a synthesis between old soldierly duties and modern situations. That is why we created the concept of citizens in uniform."

"But our present defense concept," de Maiziere argued, "is the only one that makes possible a forward defense — that is, defense of our territory beginning right at the Iron Curtain. The critics forget two things — that the opponent is the Soviet Union, and that therefore Germany can not defend herself by herself, but only in alliance with the other NATO members."

Pop Machines Are Targets For Thieves

Soft drink machines at two San Rafael gas stations were broken into last night, according to police.

First report came from the Bret Harte Richfield Station, 616 Irwin Street, where manager Stanley J. Gromowsky found the door of the machine there had been forced open.

Police said $2 worth of nickels were taken from the change-making mechanism in the door, and the coin box from inside. Theft occurred between 8:15 and 9:15 p.m., they said.

Second report, made today, came from William R. Arms of the Flying A Station, 167 Third Street. Arms told police someone walked into the station before it closed at 9 p.m. yesterday, "borrowing" the pop machine key from a hook on the wall.

He opened the door of the machine outside the station, and left. Police said he apparently returned after closing hour and emptied the coin box.

IKE EXAMPLE OF DIET CARE DRAWS KUDOS

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — Prof. Feodor Lynen, German co-winner of the 1964 Nobel medicine prize, said today, "if you want to live a long time, don't eat so much."

One reason for former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's long life and good health is that he carefully controls his diet, the Munich biochemist told a news conference.

Lynen and Dr. Konrad Bloch of Cambridge, Mass., will share the Nobel medicine prize being awarded here Thursday for their discoveries about cholesterol and fatty acid metabolism.

Grandmother Asks Quilt Back

A grandmother appealed today for return of a baby quilt "that I made by hand for my first grandchild."

Mrs. Evelyn Freel of 16 Francis Street, San Rafael, said the quilt was put into the washing machine of a Fourth Street laundrette at 4:30 p.m. yesterday and while she had gone on an errand it was removed.

"My grandchild Teena Marie Serronato is only four months old and she needs that quilt," declared Mrs. Freel. "I hope that if the circumstances are known we'll get it back. The child lives at my home."

PAJAMAS, YET

Shops Boast Luxury List For Canines

NEW YORK (AP) — Don't tell Fido, but to keep up with the real top dogs this Christmas, he must have flannel pajamas, heated sleeping pad and a self-service biscuit dispenser.

A striped Arabian tent, complete with mattress, where the dog tired-of-it-all can rest in privacy, $14.95 up.

EAR MUFFS, TOO

A nylon ski jacket and cap, for the outdoor dog who likes to hear the whistle of the wind in his ears, a nifty outfit, $7.98.

Ear muffs with attached tinkle-bell topped beret, for the infoor dog who still must go outdoors occasionally, $2.98.

For the lady dog who runs with the cafe society set, a velvet cocktail collar, in lavender and other shades, trimmed with roses and semi-precious stones, $2.98.

The pub-crawling gentleman dog hasn't been overlooked. He is offered a velvet collar, with white, formal, bow tie, $4.98.

SANTA COSTUME

For the dogs who have to play Santa Claus on Christmas Eve, like their masters, a Santa Claus suit, with beard, very stylish, $4.98.

Some discriminating dogs may want something better than the clothes shown on the racks. A made-to-measure mink coat at $65 may satisfy their quality tastes.

The dog-biscuit dispenser, looking like a coin machine, is for the dog who likes to eat between meals. One paw push and a biscuit falls out, $6.95.

Does a dog really need pajamas at $2.49 to sleep in, one store official was asked.

"We sell quite a lot of pajamas," he replied. "When the heat dies down late at night a dog gets cold. He can't wrap up in a blanket like a human, you know."

CHRISTMAS COSTUME—Tu Tu, the toy poodle, doesn't seem exactly overjoyed with the idea of getting a mink jacket and matching cap for the holidays, but presumably Tu Tu's owner is delighted to shell out $65 to a posh New York pet store for the furry garb. (AP Wirephoto)

Stanley Goldsmith Revising Plan For Sports Store In Novato

STANLEY GOLDSMITH (Stan's Equipment for Sports) is having to revise his plans for opening a branch store, now that he has been turned down by the Novato Planning Commission on rezoning of his lot at Novato Boulevard and Diablo Avenue, across from the Novato Fair Shopping Center.

This was to have been the site for his first branch. Now he's making arrangements to get started earlier on his property near the Town and Country Shopping Center in Strawberry. Originally scheduled for about three years in the future, this building may see completion by next October. No zoning problem here.

Ironically, a lot of support has recently developed for his store in Novato that should have turned up when he had his hearings. It's too late now, though he intends to reapply later.

EMBEE MARKETS in Corte Madera and Tiburon are changing their meat departments from self service back to the way they used to be — with butchers on hand to give you the special cuts you want. Meat supervisor Chester Dix who spends most of his time in Tiburon says it will provide more satisfied customers. Both he and William Henderson at the Corte Madera store will be adding extra butchers to their departments to take care of this personalized service.

HALF - DOLLARS FOR CHRISTMAS are being offered as gift suggestions by Dorothea Warden at her Coin Gems store opened last June at 1113 Fourth Street, San Rafael. These and other uncirculated coins, proof sets and mint sets (Philadelphia and Denver) will be mounted by Mrs. Warden on velvet or in jewelry pieces—or you can just tuck them away with the rest of your coin collection until some Christmas a few years away from now and find they are worth a lot more.

TIMOTHY C. CHEW of Strawberry has been made manager and assistant vice president of the first branch office of the Bank of Trade of San Francisco. The new branch will be at 1004 Fourth Street, Sacramento, with dedication ceremonies in Oriental style to be held Dec. 20. The Bank of Trade is a three-year-old independent banking institution with total current assets of 12.5 million dollars. It just completed and occupied its new San Francisco head office at 1001 Grant Avenue last Monday.

Stock Market Closes Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregularly higher today after erasing many early gains. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.8 million shares compared with 4.35 million Friday.

Fairly sharp gains by a variety of blue chips gave the market a strong upward push in the morning.

DuPont held almost 4 points of an early rise exceeding 4. Eastman Kodak and Sears, Roebuck roughly halved their biggest gains of about 2 each.

Holding 1-point gains were such key stocks as Westinghouse Electric and International Harvester.

Steels worked fractionally lower as U. S. Steel grew closer to the time for union bargaining. Chrysler held a fractional gain but most other auto stocks declined fractionally.

Boeing and Eastern Air Lines were up more than a point. TWA rose about 2 as a court set aside a government ruling for Hughes Tool Co. to reacquire TWA.

Radio Corp. looked like the most active stock. It eased from an early gain. Comsat, up 3 and Pan American World Airways, up a fraction, also were active.

Ahead a point or better were Motorola, ACF Industries, Borden, Foxboro, McDonnell Aircraft, Revlon and Socony Mobil. Schlumberger and Northwest Airlines rose about 2 each.

Corning Glass lost 2, Mack Trucks, Texas Gulf Sulphur and Pennzoil more than a point each.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Changes In U.S. Tax Act May Mean You'll Have To Pay More

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

The 1964 Revenue Act has made a lot of changes, some of which may affect your 1964 income tax return.

Peter J. Wikel

For 1964 we have a new rate scale of 16 to 77 per cent and for 1965 a scale of 14 to 70 per cent which takes the place of the old 20 to 91 scale.

We have a new withholding rate of 14 per cent which started on March 5, 1964. Since your lowest tax rate is 16 per cent for 1964, it is easy to see why you may owe some taxes.

If you are a low income taxpayer you may benefit from the new minimum standard deduction of $300 for a single person, or $400 on a joint return, plus $100 for each dependency exemption including the ones for 65 and blind up to a maximum of $1,000.

The dividend exclusion has been doubled from $50 to $100 per person, $100 to $200 on a joint return, but the dividend received credit has been reduced from 4 to 2 per cent in 1964, and there will be no dividend received credit for 1965 and after.

The retirement income credit rate has been reduced to reflect the lower tax rates. For 1964 it is 17 per cent and for 1965 it will be 15 per cent. Also, the maximum amount of retirement income subject to credit has been increased from $1,524 to $2,286, where only one spouse meets the earned income test.

There are new sick pay exclusion rules. If sick pay is over 75 per cent of your regular weekly wage, then you must be absent from work for more than 30 days, and the exclusion applies only for the time after 30 days.

Sick pay for the first 30 days can be excluded if it is 75 per cent or less of the regular weekly rate and you are in the hospital at least one day. There is a seven-day waiting period if you are not hospitalized.

You must include in your income premiums paid by your employer for group-term insurance in excess of $50,000 coverage.

You cannot deduct for state and local taxes other than for property, income, sales and gasoline taxes. Automobile licenses, driver's licenses, state and city licenses, and cigarette taxes are no longer deductible.

Personal property taxes on your car are still deductible. That is, the amount in excess of $8 registration fee ($9 station wagon).

A new $100 deductible provision has been imposed on personal casualty and theft losses. Only the excess over $100 per loss is deductible, the same as a $100 deductible insurance policy, so there will be no more small claims.

There have been many changes in charitable deductions including the extension of the 30 per cent maximum deduction to publicly supported charities, such as museums, operas, symphonies, ballet, United Crusades, Red Cross, cancer funds, TB Assn., etc., etc., and the carryover of unused excess contributions for five years.

Medical expense deduction.—The 1 per cent of adjusted gross income reduction has been eliminated for taxpayers over 65 and dependent parents over 65.

The deduction for child care and care of disabled dependents is now available in the case of a wife who is institutionalized or incapacitated and applies to the care of children up to age 13. If there are two or more children, the maximum deduction has been increased to $900. The deduction on joint returns must be reduced by the combined income over $6,000 unless the spouse is incapacitated.

The moving expenses of employees, including actual transportation costs for people and furniture and meals and lodging along the way is deductible if the move is over 20 miles closer to the job.

The allocation rule for travel expense has been repealed for domestic travel. Travel expense on trips within the U.S. primarily for business are fully deductible.

For individuals, capital loss may be carried over indefinitely until completely used up.

Capital gain on sale of depreciable real estate may now be considered part ordinary income if you owned the real estate less than 10 years and claimed accelerated depreciation after Jan. 1, 1964.

The ordinary income is a percentage of the excess 1964 depreciation deductions over straight-line depreciation. The percentage is 100 per cent for the first 20 full months the prpoerty was held and then decreases 1 per cent per month thereafter until the gain is 100 per cent capital gain at the end of 10 years.

If your income fluctuates more than $3,000 per year, you may be able to average it, and pay a lower tax, under the new income averaging rules.

There are many changes and they are complex. You should consult your tax adviser early or purchase the book "Your Federal Income Tax—1965 Edition," for 50 cents from the District Director of Internal Revenue, or from the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

Strictly speaking a gun is a long-barrelled cannon with a high muzzle velocity and a flat trajectory. The term, however, is loosely applied to any firearm.

OUT OF TROUBLE—Los Angeles Rams quarterback Bill Munson (19), trapped by charging San Francisco 49er tackle Charlies Krueger (70), still gets off short pass to fullback Ben Wilson (36) in the third quarter of yesterday's game in Kezar Stadium. Krueger, a native of Caldwell, Tex., was named winner of the team's annual Len Eshmont Memorial Award before the game. (AP Wirephoto)

49ers Win: It's What's Up Front That Counts

San Francisco 49ers Coach Jack Christiansen hit it right on the nose when he said, "The four men up front won it for us."

He was referring to the work turned in yesterday by Clark Miller, Don Colchico, Charlie Krueger and Roland Lakes that helped produce a 28-7 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

"They were simply tremendous," Christiansen said. "They put on a terrific rush on the passer. No one of the four was outstanding by himself, but as a unit they played a great game."

In case there are any doubters, the game statistics bear out Christiansen. He made a mistake, though, in not adding the work of linebackers Dave Wilcox and Matt Hazeltine—except in afterthought.

Between them, the "front four plus two" held Los Angeles to a mere 15 yards rushing. In addition, they spilled Rams' quarterback Bill Munson 10 times for a big minus 62 yards. And when they weren't spilling Munson, they had the rookie scrambling for his life.

Except for the fact that he doesn't look like John Brodie and he wore a blue and white uniform instead of the San Francisco red and white, Munson resembled the 49er quarterback fans have been seeing this season. He did complete 19 of 36 passes, but hardly any of them were damaging. One, an eight-yard toss to Les Josephson, accounted for Los Angeles' only touchdown.

Brodie, on the other hand, looked more like some other quarterback. He completed 18 of 30 passes for 204 yards, ran once for 23 yards, and consistently came up with the right call on third down-yardage situations. In all, it was his best showing of the year, and a very satisfying one, considering the abuse heaped on him a week ago for a 14-3 loss to the Western Division champion Baltimore Colts.

"John called a good game," Christiansen said with the slightest trace of a smile. "Coming back like that after last week's booing is the sign of a real pro."

The Rams scored the third time they got their hands on the ball, which was in the 12th minute of the game, with Munson capping a 43-yard march with his toss to Josephson. As things turned out, though, it was their last score of the game as well.

The 49ers missed a golden opportunity two minutes later when rookie halfback Dave Kopay fumbled Brodie's handoff on the Los Angeles three and Cliff Livingston recovered for the Rams.

However, Abe Woodson set the 49ers up in business early in the second period when he ran a punt to the 48, and this time the 49ers went all the way as Brodie connected on five of six passes, the last a one-yard toss to Kopay for a TD.

Six minutes later, San Francisco moved in front to stay, marching 80 yards in 11 plays with fullback Gary Lewis traveling the last five for the score. The big gainer in the drive was a 41-yard play in which Brodie ran more than half the distance and then lateralled to Kopay for the remaining yardage.

The 49ers' third TD required just one play—a 53-yard loft by Brodie to Monte Stickles—and their fourth came on a 69-yard pass-run play seven minutes from the end of the game. Brodie, however, did not figure in this one, except to hand off to fullback Mike Lind, who threw some 50 yards to Dave Parks on the option play, and Parks ran it home all alone.

Los Angeles Coach Harland Svare said simply of the game: "The 49ers played better football and that is why they won." He was right, too.

TITTLE MAY HOLD KEY TO PRO GRID PLAYOFF

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals did what they had to do yesterday to stay in the Eastern Division title race in the National Football League, "and now if Tittle can have a good day . . ."

It was St. Louis Coach Wally Lemm daydreaming out loud after his club had smashed the league-leading Cleveland Browns 28-19 and extended the division race until the final week.

The victory brought the second-place Cardinals within one-half game of the Browns. Each team has one game left.

Lemm still was savoring the satisfying triumph against the team the Cardinals had to beat, or be eliminated from championship consideration. But already he was looking toward next week when Cleveland plays in New York on Saturday and the Cardinals host Philadelphia on Sunday.

"New York has been pointing at Cleveland and us all year," he said. "The Giants haven't had a good year, but if Tittle (New York quarterback Y.A. Tittle) can have a good day . . ."

The obvious reasoning was that Tittle at his best could deliver the death blow against the Browns, who have lost two of their last three games. "Of course, we can't stumble against Philadelphia," Lemm added.

DIDN'T HAVE IT

"We just didn't have it today," he said, "but that doesn't mean we don't intend to win next week.

"The Cardinals deserved to win. We couldn't stop them and we couldn't move the ball. Being more than two touchdowns behind at the half hurt our offense because we had to score in a hurry and as a result we couldn't run Jimmy Brown as much as we'd like to."

Brown ran only three times in the second half as Cleveland tried to overcome a 21-6 halftime deficit. Cleveland quarterback Frank Ryan was kept off target by the hard-rushing St. Louis line most of the game and it wasn't until the fourth quarter that he managed to get going, but it was too late.

The Cardinals, however, found the scoring touch early on Charley Johnson's pin-point passing. He connected 11 times in 16 tries in the decisive first half for 123 yards and two touchdowns. Linebacker Larry Stallings' interception and Johnson's passes set up a third score in the first 11 minutes of the second period.

When Lou Groza's field goals brought the Browns within striking distance in the second half, Johnson went to work again and passed the Cardinals to the clinching touchdown.

Palmer Fades, Nicklaus Wins It

U.S. Pair Breeze To Canada Cup Victory

By BOB MYERS

KAANAPALI, Maui, Hawaii (AP) — The Canada Cup, emblematic of world supremacy of professional golf, will reside for the fifth straight year in the United States.

And the International Trophy belongs for the second successive year to Jack Nicklaus.

This was the setting today as two-man teams from 32 nations, plus Hawaii and Puerto Rico, dispersed after giving the colorful isle in the Pacific a show they'll never forget.

Nicklaus staged a rally made famous by Palmer, coming from six strokes back of Arnie starting the final 18 holes.

At the finish, in which a three-way deadlock was broken at one stage, and a two-way tie at the 71st hole, it was Nicklaus 276, and Palmer 278.

More than 7,000 fans, largest turnout for golf in the history of the Hawaiian Islands, swarmed over the par-72 Royal Kaanapali golf course.

It had long since been recognized that the United States had the Canada Cup tucked away. The American team compiled 554 strokes with Argentina next at 565 and South Africa third with 568.

The spotlight was on Palmer and Nicklaus, who later offered some friendly criticism, or advice, to the sponsoring International Golf Association.

They disclosed they agreed, coming to 71st, or 17th hole of the day, that there would be no sudden-death playoff, as had been announced.

Palmer, in the post-press interview said:

"Our objective from the start of the week was to win the Canada Cup for the United States.

"But then it turned out we were fighting each other. This doesn't make sense."

"This should be either strictly a team championship, and for the other competition; maybe just one man from each country trying for the individual title," Nicklaus volunteered.

"All week," Palmer interjected, "we were comparing notes on the club to use, position and things like that. I got sore at Jack for hitting into the water."

Palmer paused and added with a laugh, "Today I was hoping he would."

"And by gad, I did," said Nicklaus as both laughed.

Player's game fell apart soon after. The popular South African bogeyed four straight holes, starting with the 13th.

The Nicklaus-Palmer logjam ended on No. 17 when Palmer three-putted from about 25 feet. Arnie bogeyed the 18th but by then it didn't matter.

Team scoring behind the first three finishers: Spain, 572; England, 758; Hawaii 579; Canada, 584; Japan, 585; Brazil, 587; Belgium, 588; China, 590, and Wales, 591.

49ers Honor Krueger For Inspiration

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Charlie Krueger's teammates have voted the San Francisco 49er defensive tackle the team's annual Len Eshmont Memorial Award.

The award was presented yesterday to Krueger for best exemplifying the "inspiration and courageous play of Len Eshmont."

Eshmont, who died in 1957, was a member of the first 49er squad.

Krueger, a native of Caldwall, Tex., who played at Texas A&M before turning professional, was given a $1,000 watch. Each winner has his name engraved on a plaque at 49er headquarters.

Stickles' Best Day In 5 Years; Brodie Still Confounds Experts

Randol

They called it Alumni Day at Kezar yesterday, but Monte Stickles Day would have been more appropriate. The San Francisco 49ers' big blocking end turned into a pass-catching demon and brought sweet revenge over the Los Angeles Rams to the tune of 28 to 7.

Big Monte gathered in eight passes in his greatest offensive show in five years. One was a 53-yard bomb from quarterback John Brodie in the third quarter. Monte had been cutting to the middle all afternoon but this time he cut to the sidelines and was all alone on the 30-yard line. Stickles had company before he crossed the final stripe but Monte bulled his 230 pounds over for the score.

Unpredictable Brodie confounded his critics again with a smartly called game, completing 18 out of 30 passes and generally confusing the Ram defense. If John could only run a string of good games together a lot of Monday morning quarterbacks would have nothing to talk about.

ONCE AGAIN it was the 49er defense that slammed the door on Ram efforts to stay in the game. This gang has been great all year but yesterday they outdid themselves by shutting out the L.A. offense. That's right, NOT ONE first down by rushing. That doesn't happen very often.

This fourth win of the season doubles the Niner victory total over last year, with one game still to go. That one is with the Detroit Lions. Neither team is going anywhere so it should be a wide open air battle to provide excitement without endangering life and limb.

THE COASTING Baltimore Colts, with the Western Conference already won, are awaiting the outcome of the Eastern Conference race to determine their opponent for the championship game right after Christmas.

The Cleveland Browns can cinch the title if they can beat Y. A. Tittle and the New York Giants next Saturday. That may take some doing, even though the Giants have been doormats this year. The Brownies have always had trouble with the Giants, and Tittle and Co. will be going in loose and relaxed.

ALREADY THE Giants have crimped the chances of contending St. Louis by handing them a defeat and a tie. A Giant win coupled with a Cardinal win over Philadelphia on Sunday would give St. Louis the Eastern crown. We'll all be able to watch the finale on the magical electric television box.

Once again Kezar Stadium belongs to the seagulls. By this time next year pickings may be better because all signs point to a resurgent 49er team and bigger crowds with bigger leftovers. We and the seagulls can hardly wait.

Teams Tie At Peacock Tournament

There was a two-way tie for first place in the best ball foursome tourney yesterday at the Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club.

Frank Dill, Joe Dickover, Bill Jaccard and Don Schweitzer had a 57, as did George Dell Era, Don Fox, John Leer and All Ennis. Mike O'Connell, Martin Goulson, Dick Verdellet and Frank Barley teamed up for a 58.

AT THE Meadow Club Saturday, it was match vs. par for the men's division. Class A winners were Norm Hartman, 5 up; Chet Patterson, 4 up and Norm Green, 4 up. In Class B, winners were Jim Sanford, 2 up; Stu Harrison, 1 up, and Dr. Carroll Paulson, 1 up.

Emerson Rejects Pro Bid

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Roy Emerson, Australia's Wimbledon tennis champion who is considered the world's top amateur player, said today he had rejected an $85,000 offer to turn professional immediately.

"It was a wonderful offer, but I want to have another crack at Wimbledon," Emerson explained. "I want to have a little time at home and my main interest in life is in amateur tennis."

Emerson won the Australia, Wimbledon and United States singles in the past year.

He was dropped from the Australian Davis Cup team for making an unauthorized overseas tour last spring but was reinstated in time to lead the Australian team to victory over the United States in the challenge round.

When he returned with the cup, he was quoted as saying it would take $100,000 to induce him to turn pro.

TAX PROBLEM

"It was a nice sum they offered but after having conferred with my financial advisers on the taxation problem and working out how much I would have left, I think I was wise in reaching a decision to reject the offer," Emerson said today.

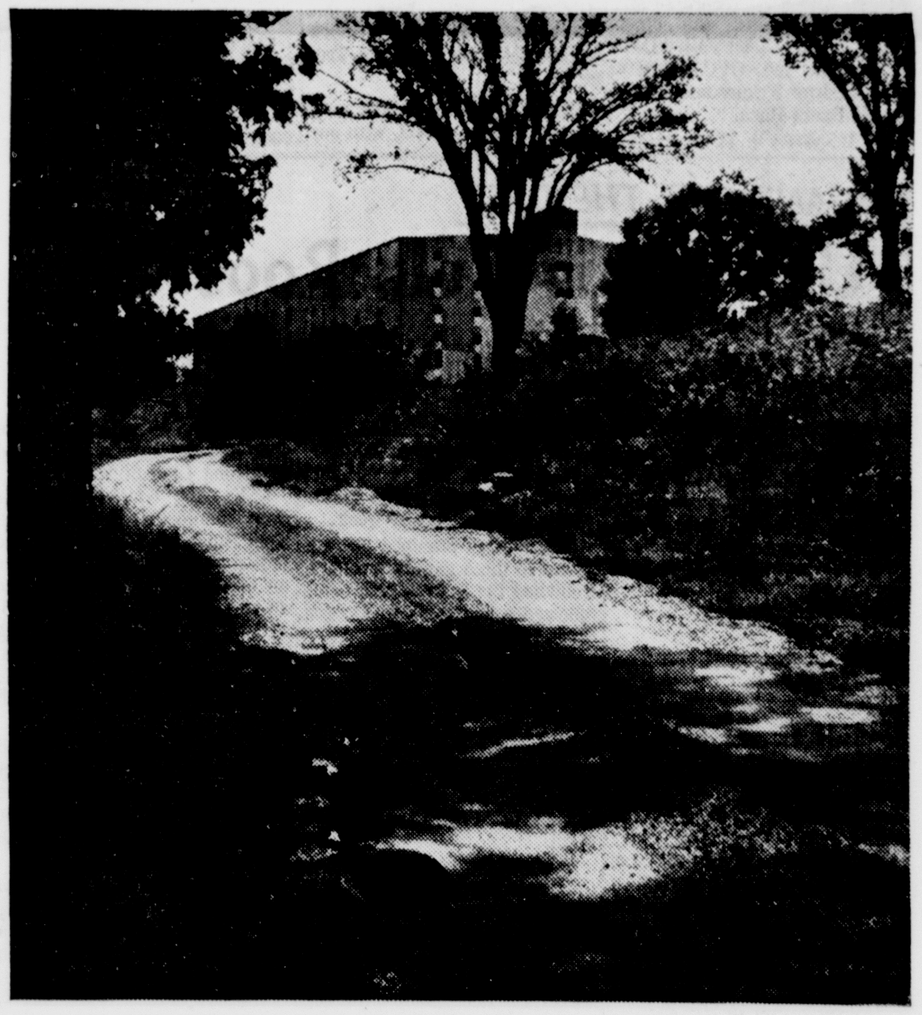

"I also want to spend more time at home because my wife, Joy, is expecting another baby in March.

"Now that it is all over I do not think I was going to turn at any stage of the negotiations, but the contract they offered me had to be closely studied."

The offer was made by veteran Australian pro Frank Sedgman, who said after Emerson made his decision: "It was one of those things. We can't win all the time.

"We would have liked to have him this year because we need new blood in the pro ranks, but if he wins Wimbledon again this year we will consider making him another offer.

"I mentioned this to Roy, but he told me to wait and see how he plays."

IT STAYS PRETTY QUIET around Jack Daniel's Hollow, especially up by our warehouses where our sippin' whiskey gets properly aged.

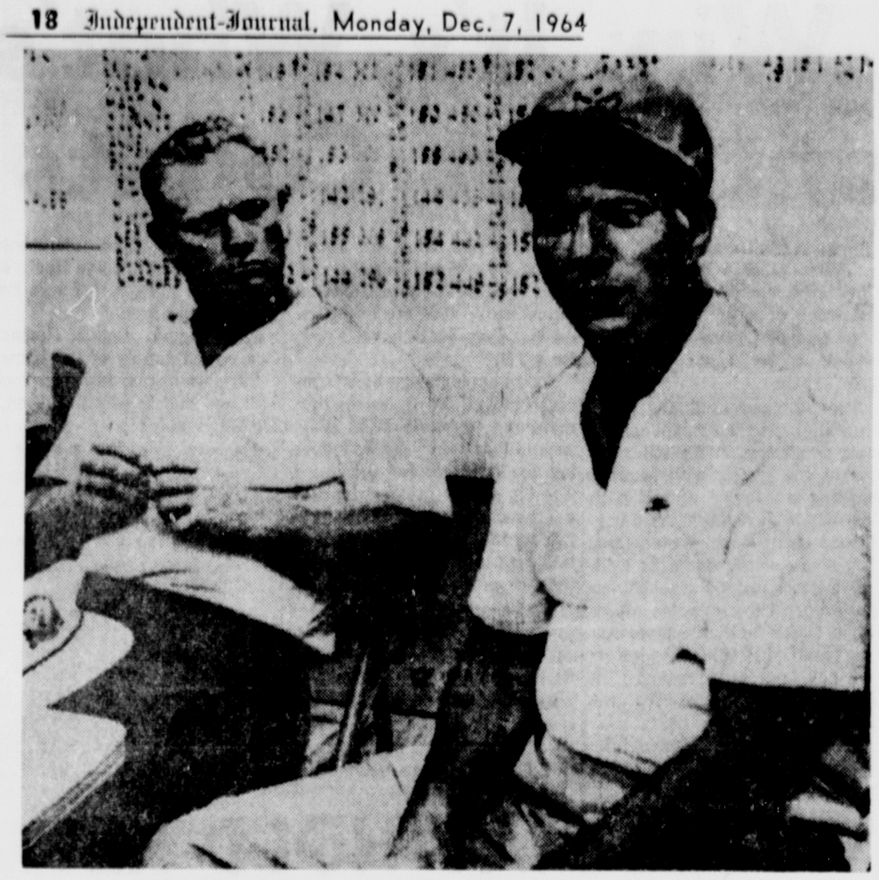

Tennessee whiskey calls for a lot of time and patience. Charcoal Mellowing alone takes 10 to 12 days. (Every drop is seeped down through 10 feet of tightly packed, hard maple charcoal.) Then we wait for the changing seasons to give it proper maturity. So you can see why we've never got in the habit of bustling around. And after a sip of Jack Daniel's, we believe, you'll see why we keep things this way.

WINNING UNITED STATES TANDEM

Jack Nicklaus (left) and Arnold Palmer paced the United States to its fifth straight Canada Cup golf victory at yesterday's concluding round in Hawaii. At a news conference following the tournament, Palmer explains that he and Nicklaus agreed there would be no sudden-death playoff in case they tied. "Our objective from the start of the week was to win the Canada Cup for the United States," Palmer said. "But then it turned out we were fighting each other." See story on page 17. (AP Wirephoto)

Eastern Race Goes Down To Wire

Cards Upset Browns

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It wasn't so very long ago that the St. Louis Cardinals were vitally concerned with what went on in Yankee Stadium in New York and it will be that way again next Saturday.

This time it's the National Football League's Eastern Division title going up for grabs and the Cardinals will be the football variety instead of baseball.

The Cleveland Browns had a chance to wrap up the Eastern title yesterday but lost to St. Louis 28-19 allowing the Cards to creep within a half-game of the lead. Cleveland visits New York Saturday and the Giants, struggling through a dismal season after three straight Eastern crowns, once again are a vital factor in the Eastern race.

Should the Browns win Saturday, Sunday's game between the Philadelphia Eagles and St. Louis won't mean a thing. But a Giant victory could give the Cards the crown if St. Louis gets by the Eagles the following day.

OTHER GAMES

The Giants lost their ninth in 13 games yesterday, bowing to Minnesota 30-21. In other games, Detroit ended Baltimore's 11-game winning streak 31-14, Pittsburgh topped Washington 14-7, Philadelphia downed Dallas 24-14, and San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 28-7. Saturday it was Green Bay 17, Chicago 3.

In the American League, Boston moved into a first-place tie in the Eastern Division with Buffalo. The Patriots whipped Kansas City 31-24 while the Bills lost to Oakland 16-13. San Diego clinched the Western crown, its fourth in five years, with a 38-3 victory over New York.

Charley Johnson keyed the Cardinal triumph, pitching two touchdown passes and running short yardage for two more scores as St. Louis stalled Cleveland's title drive. Johnson completed 15 of 22 for 167 yards.

The Giants, who handed St. Louis one of its losses and held the Cards to a tie in their other game, showed signs of life against Minnesota. Clarance Childs raced 100 yards returning a kickoff for a TD and Gary Wood handled the New York offense adequately.

But scrambling Fran Tarkenton tossed two TD passes and Fred Cox kicked three field goals as the Vikings came from behind to win it.

PLUM STARS

Milt Plum threw three TD passes as the Lions ended Baltimore's win streak that started the second week of the season. Jim Gibbons caught two of Plum's pitches and Terry Barr gathered in the third. Lennie Moore scored in his 16th straight game for the Colts.

Pittsburgh scored the winning touchdown midway in the final period and then halted a last minute Washington drive for its victory. Ed Brown's 7-yard pass to Gary Ballman produced the deciding points.

Rookie Jack Concannon, a $50,000 draft choice last winter, made his first start for Philadelphia after watching 12 games from the bench and sparked the Eagles' victory over Dallas. Concannon completed 10 of 20 passes including two TDs and also carried the ball eight times for 99 yards.

John Brodie threw a pair of TD passes and an aggressive San Francisco defense stalled Los Angeles as the 49ers reversed an early season loss.

DIVING CATCH — Cleveland Browns end Ernie Green (48) makes a diving catch over the goal line on a pass in the fourth quarter of yesterday's game with the St. Louis Cardinals. Defending back for the Cards is Pat Fischer (37). The Browns were beaten, 28-19. (AP Wirephoto)

Chris' Happy Days

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — For Jack Christiansen, everything's coming up roses—at least this week.

Christiansen, who earlier was signed to a new contract that the San Francisco 49er management said would keep him at the team's helm for "many years," was all smiles yesterday in the dressing room after seeing his club trounce the Los Angeles Rams 28-7.

He was especially pleased with a 49er defense that cut off the Ram running attack with a puny 15 yards.

"We've looked real good defensively all year. Lapses by some of our young people hurt us, but we'll overcome them."

He also had special praise for quarterback John Brodie — target of fan disapproval for much of the season — who threw two touchdown passes and "called a real good game."

Christiansen had a simple explanation for the 49ers easy victory as opposed to an earlier 42-14 thumping imposed by the Rams.

"We threw the ball to our own men this time," said Christiansen. In the earlier game the Rams picked off seven San Francisco passes. This time they intercepted only one, and that was late in the fourth period with the outcome no longer in doubt.

Coach Harland Svare of the Rams blamed his team's defeat on inability of his pass catchers to run pass patterns.

He said that quarterback Bill Munson was "quick, alert and threw some beautiful passes but he was the victim of our receivers."

Asked why he benched rookie flanker Bucky Pope for the entire game, Svare answered:

"If I had a whole new set of receivers I'd sit them (the regulars) all down till they learned how to play."

6 Straight Rainouts For Semi-Pro League

For the sixth week in a row, the Marin County Semi-Pro Winter Baseball League schedule was held up yesterday because of wet grounds.

The Billings-Hutchison Builders traveled to Pacifica, however, for a practice game against the Lions and came back to Marin with an 8-6 triumph.

Leading the B-H batting attack were Jerry Ard with two home runs and Jess Jacinto with a homer and single. Ard also had a single and wound up the day with four runs batted in.

Steve Miller, working in relief of starter Ron Cole, was credited with the win. Miller allowed two unearned runs and one earned while striking out seven in the final four innings of a game that was called after seven frames. Cole whiffed six and allowed three unearned runs on two hits in the three innings he worked.

San Rafael Bowlers Lose Match

It was a very close match that wasn't decided until the 10th frame of the team game. John Ohanesian sparked the San Francisco team's attack with games of 194, 237, 177, 225 and 232 for a 1065 series.

The Padres from Country Club Bowl were led by Dick Treadway and Phil Wallace, both of Corte Madera. Dick shot 234-194-246-193 for an 867 four-game series, and Phil rolled 205-201-211-212-188 for a 1017 five-game set.

The Padres, now 4-6 on the season and resting in fourth place, will host the Fremont Pathfinders next Sunday at Country Club Bowl, 6 p.m.

USF Dons Rule Roost In Coast College Basketball

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of San Francisco Dons, until proven otherwise, reign as the top basketball team on the West Coast.

The eighth-ranked Dons meet surprising San Francisco State tomorrow and move on to Berkeley Saturday for a contest against California as the season moves into the second week.

USF handed Stanford its first defeat in three games Saturday, trouncing the Indians 77-50. This followed a triumph over Oregon State earlier in the week.

There's plenty of action tonight. Washington is at Oregon in a non-league game between the two Pacific Athletic Conference schools, Sacramento State plays St. Mary's, Idaho is at San Jose State, and the University of the Pacific is at Utah State.

In other games last Saturday, California thrashed St. Mary's 62-44, Brigham Young made it two in a row over Oregon 98-79, Oregon State outlasted Washington 67-63, second - ranked UCLA got back on the winning track by trouncing Indiana State 112-76, and Gonzaga held off Washington State 72-71.

In games involving members of the West Coast Athletic Conference, the University of the Pacific remained undefeated by beating Idaho State 73-55, the University of California at Santa Barbara beat Idaho 76-68, Pepperdine fell before Arizona State 92-69 and Loyola was humiliated by strong Utah State 96-69.

USF hung 6-foot-6 Joe Ellis over Stanford's hot - shooting Kent Hinckley, 6-2, and held the Indian star to eight points. After an over-confident first half, the all-veteran Dons stretched a 28-26 lead on the long-range firing of Ellis, who collected 16 points, and the in close work of Ollie Johnson, who led scorers with 20.

Seattle dropped its second game mainly because 7 - foot Tom Bender blocked off the boards and added 15 points for Tulsa. Malkin Strong led Seattle scoring with 14 points.

Oregon State's Jim Jarvis scored 30 points, 12 on free throws, as the Beavers managed to beat Washington despite scoring five less field goals.

UCLA, beaten Friday 110-83 by Illinois, roared back behind Gail Goodrich's 29 points in beating Indiana State. Fred Goss and Keith Erickson scored 20 each.

Surfers In Stinson Beach Show

The first surfing contest in Marin County was held yesterday at Stinson Beach before a crowd of 500 spectators.

Holding the competition was the North Point Surfers Club of Marin. Some 33 members of the club found high tide and good surf to a height of six feet in the morning, but the conditions fell off for the afternoon finals.

Raymond "Rip" Ratekin of Santa Rosa took first in the senior division. Next were Robert Nelson of San Rafael, Charles "Dusty" Benedict of San Anselmo, Thornton Smith of Corte Madera, Paul Hansen of San Anselmo and Dennis Cuyler of Bolinas.

Craig Stewart of Belvedere was the winner in the junior division (under 16). Next were Christopher "Kit" Africa of Sausalito, Rudi Ferris of San Rafael, Bernie Gira of Corte Madera, Kirby Ferris of San Rafael and Roger Green of Mill Valley.

Whew! 4 Seconds To Go, Raiders Win

Gilchrist—object of a hassle between the two American Football League clubs earlier in the season—gained only 24 yards yesterday as Oakland upset Buffalo 16-13 and prevented the Bills from winning the Eastern Division title.

The loss, their second against 10 victories, left the Bills a half game ahead of Boston and set the stage for a divisional title clash in two weeks when the two teams face each other in the regular season finale.

The ability of the Raider defense to contain Gilchrist, the AFL's leading rusher, complemented a splendid pinch-hit appearance by Flores.

The teams were locked in a scoreless tie through most of the first half. Then Raider regular Cotton Davidson was injured and Flores replaced him.

Flores found Clem Daniels with a 35-yard scoring toss before the half ended, then set up a 39-yard field goal by Mike Mercer that made it 10-0 midway in the third period.

The Bills rallied on the arm of sub quarterback Daryl Lamonica and the instep of Pete Gogolak. Lamonica fired a 38-yard scoring strike to Elbert Dubenion, and Gogolak—the soccer-style kicker — booted field goals of 12 and 24 yards as the Bills took a 13-10 lead.

Then came the Flores-Powell heroics and the avalanche of fans, who prevented Mercer from even trying the extra point.

A disappointed Saban refused to make excuses. He praised the Bills defense but said his offense "played very poorly."

Davis, whose Raiders have a week off before meeting San Diego on Dec. 20, was asked in the dressing room why the Raiders passed instead of trying to run for the clinching score.

"I have to go with my man," said Davis, in reference to all-AFL end Powell.

PENSKE SWEEPS SPEED HONORS

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Roger Penske should b ack a truck up to the swank British Colonial Hotel tonight to haul away the trophies and the dollars he won during Bahamas Speed Week.

Penske, a 27-year-old Gladwyne, Pa., auto dealer, yesterday became the first driver ever to make a clean sweep of all major Speed Week racing events. Some of the world's best drivers haev spent years trying.

Penske's record for the week:

He won the Nassau Tourist Trophy race Nov. 29, setting an Oakes field record of 93.025 miles per hour for the 102 miles.

He won the Governor's Cup race of 112 miles Friday and his 100.120 m.p.h. also was a track record.

He replaced Hap Sharp of Midland, Tex., in a Chaparral Chevrolet yesterday and won the 252-mile International trophy race, last big event for this year on the world road racing calendar. His time of 89.118 m.p.h. was made on a course dampened by a pre-race shower.

In addition, Penske set a one-lap qualifying record of 105.194 m.p.h. for the tricky 4.5-mile course. For this he also will get a trophy.

HE'S WEALTHY

The week's doings netted the wealthy sportsman-driver just under $10,000. He doesn't need the cash, and if he doesn't show up at the British Colonial tonight to receive it the money will go to charity.

For a time yesterday, it appeared that Penske would be denied the International trophy. His Chaparral Chevrolet struck a course marker early in the race and he was forced out with a broken suspension bar.

On lap 25, with the track drying and returning to normal, Sharp turned his car over to Penske. By lap 42, the Pennsylvanian had it in first place and kept it there the rest of the way.

A. J. Foyt, U.S. driving champion and defending titleholder in the International trophy event; Dan Gurney and Mexican champion Pedro Rodrigue had their troubles.

Gurney lost his clutch while leading, and Rodriguez was forced to make a lengthy pit stop to fix a faulty carburetor while he was in front.

Foyt went off the course early in the race but made up the lost time and took the lead for one lap about the midway point. Then his 550-horsepower engine began missing and he drove the last 100 miles with his chink tucked in his hand.

New Safety Helmet Topic Of Article By Marin Man

Brain damage, design of protective headgear, and the work being done by the Snell Memorial Foundation are the topics of an article by Roderick H. Aya of 4 North Point Circle, Belvedere, which will appear in The Motorcycle Book early in 1965. Published by Fawcett Books, the article will also appear by permission in Japan.

Aya is a director of the nonprofit Foundation dedicated to improvement of all forms of safety helmets. This group's first efforts dealt with auto racing helmets, but in recent years its research has encompassed protective headgear for skiers, police and firemen, as well as for Little Leaguers and football players.

The Foundation was formed as a result of a fatal accident on Aug. 19, 1956 at the Redwood Sports Car Races, Arcata. William H. (Pete) Snell, a popular veteran Bay Area race driver, was hit from behind while negotiating a curve. His car went into a series of snap rolls. He died shortly after of massive brain injuries.

Aya, then chief safety inspector of the San Francisco Region, Sports Car Club of America , began an all-out effort to discover why his friend had died. Was it due to inadequate head protection? The resultant answer was to shake the helmet industry to its very roots.

LITTLE KNOWN

At that time little was known as to what made a "good" helmet. Drivers chose their headgear mainly on the basis of appearance. No valid facility for testing the effectiveness of helmets had yet been devised for general use.

Dr. George G. Snively, Director of Medical Services, Sacramento County Hospital, also a close friend of Snell's and urged on by Aya, began a series of tests on helmets currently available, using weights dropped on helmeted heads of cadavers.

Resulting X-ray data disclosed that all helmets tested, save one, were totally inadequate to withstand energy impacted at forces encountered under accident conditions. The only helmet which passed the massive impact test was one that incorporated a nonresilient liner, which absorbed the shock normally transmitted to the wearer's head. The tests also disclosed that resilient, spongy-type liners merely stored the energy and then transmitted it full force to the head.

Today, the Foundation's efficient and highly developed electronic equipment has replaced Snively's cadavers as a mode of testing. Designed by the Foundation, this equipment is the most modern in the world.

RACING, SKIING

The Foundation's standards for road users' helmets were the first established in the United States. They have been adopted by the Sports Car Club of America and other racing organizations who require Snell approved helmets to be worn by all competing drivers. Also the International Ski Assn. has adopted the Foundation's standards for helmets used in all downhill events coming under their jurisdiction.

Recently, helmets for Little League ball players built by Bell-Topex, Inc., of Long Beach, were developed in cooperation with the Tiburon Little League and the Snell Foundation. William F. Carrol, past president of the League, and Aya supervised field testing of this helmet for some four years. It has been approved by the National Little League, and provides protection far greater than any Little League helmet previously marketed.

MAN IN SPACE

The Foundation works closely with the United States Army, Navy and Air Force in improving headgear used in the various branches of the Armed Forces, including the Man in Space program. Dr. Snively and Dr. Clinton O. Chichester, also a director of the Foundation and a professor at the University of California at Davis, are the United States representatives on the International Standards Organization's committee formulating international standards for road users' helmets.

The Foundation's principal efforts are directed to research into the mechanisms of brain injury. With the cooperation of race organizations and law enforcement agencies, particularly the California Highway Patrol and the Los Angeles police Department, the Foundation has gathered a wealth of new data involving head injuries. Correlated with results obtained in the Foundation's laboratories on the Davis Campus of the University of California, these data are shedding new light in this important branch of medical science.

Warriors Hurtin' At Gate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hurting at the gate and in the standings, the San Francisco Warriors must do this week without their star attraction.

The club announced Saturday that Wilt Chamberlain will sit out three home games this week at Civic Auditorium because of a broken nose smashed Friday.

The 7-foot-1 scoring star is expected to make the eastern trip with the Warriors after missing games against St. Louis tomorrow and Detroit Friday and Saturday. But the home team keeps all the receipts in the National Basketball Association.

Chamberlain tried to compete Saturday against the Boston Celtics, but managed only eight points in 32 minutes as Boston ran away to a 105-81 triumph before a disappointing 5,117 fans.

MESCHERY HIGH

The Warriors are in last place in the NBA Western Division, which they won last season.

Chamberlain missed the first five games and much of the exhibition season because of an inflamed pancreas. This also hurt San Francisco at the ticket gates to its new Civic Auditorium home.

Top Draft Picks Ink 49er Pacts

Halfback George Donnelly of Illinois, leading defensive back of the Big 10, was signed yesterday by the San Francisco 49ers.

Donnelly, 6-foot, 1-inch and 202 pounds, was drafted in the first round of last week's NFL selection meeting on a pick the 49ers obtained from the Cleveland Browns. He led the Big 10 in pass interceptions in 1963 and picked off six more this past season.

On their own first round selection the 49ers drafted fullback Ken Willard of North Carolina. He signed with the Prospectors Saturday.

Knicks Haven't Won Road Game All Year

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At home, the Knicks haven't enjoyed any particular advantage, posting a 5-8 record. But at someone else's home? Forget it. They're 0-9 on the road.

The St. Louis Hawks were the latest to add to the Knicks' road woes, hustling out to a 61-45 halftime advantage and coasting in with a 115-94 triumph last night.

Cincinnati, meanwhile, got a 55-point contribution from Oscar Robertson and Adrian Smith and beat Baltimore 124-113 at Columbus, Ohio, and Los Angeles edged Philadelphia 109-104 at Minneapolis in the only other games yesterday.

It was a romp all the way for the Hawks, who hit 11 of 21 shots from the field in the first period for a 33-22 lead and weren't troubled again. Zelmo Beaty topped the St. Louis attack with 21 points and Jim Barnes led the Knicks with 2.6

It was almost as easy for the Royals, who moved to within 3½ games of Eastern leader Boston. Cincinnati led all the way against Baltimore, by as much as 21 points. Robertson had 32 points, Smith 23 and Jerry Lucas pulled down 28 rebounds. Walt Bellamy topped the losers with 25 points.

Philadelphia, which had trailed by as much as 19 points, closed to within one, 105-104 in the closing moments, but a couple of free throws by Jerry West and a layup by Rudy LaRusso pulled it out for the Lakers. West had 30 points and Paul Neumann topped the 76ers with 23.

In Saturday games, Boston whipped San Francisco 105-81, Detroit beat the Knicks 110-100 and Philadelphia defeated Baltimore 125-108.

Edward Murray of 30 Cornelia Avenue, Mill Valley, has been elected president of the Golden Gate Park Tennis Club.

Murray has been president of the club 8 of the last 12 years, last serving in 1962. He has been a tennis instructor for the past 6 years at the San Francisco club.

Seals Trek North Next

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Still locked in the Western Hockey League basement, the San Francisco Seals face a busy week with three games starting Wednesday in Portland against the Buckaroos.

After threatening to break out of the cellar by whipping the Los Angeles Blades, Friday 6-3, the Seals were swamped Saturday night 7-4 by the same club.

Brian Smith turned in a three-goal hat trick for the Blades and Willie O'Ree added two more goals.

The Seals actually led 4-3 in the third and final period. But Smith scored twice and O'Ree then notched his two goals. The Blades scored three times within the last two minutes of the contest.

Pope Might Make More Trips Abroad

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI is considering the possibility of making more trips abroad in his new role as a pilgrim for peace, high Vatican sources said today.

Informed sources at the Holy See said one likely place for a papal visit next year is the Philippines. The Pacific islands will mark the 400th anniversary of Roman Catholicism in 1965.

It was emphasized that the final decision for any trips rests with the pope.

Asked by newsmen on his return flight from Bombay Saturday about the prospects for other trips, the pope said:

CHICAGO (AP)—Police have arrested two men for shoving and swearing at each other on a subway train.

Police said the men, both with records as pickpockets, apparently tried to pick each other's pockets in the incident Friday.

FBI Flays Magazine For Hoover-LBJ Feud Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI has accused Newsweek magazine of "a new low in reporting" for an article in which the magazine said President Lyndon B. Johnson had decided to replace J. Edgar Hoover as FBI chief—an allegation which the White House since has denied.

The criticism, along with an accusation that the magazine presented inaccurate statistics on the FBI, was in a letter sent by FBI Associate Director Clyde Tolson to Newsweek editor Osborn Elliott.

Among other things, the article in Newsweek's Dec. 7 issue, released in advance of its cover date, said Rep. John J. Rooney (D-N.Y.), head of a House Appropriations subcommittee, was especially sympathetic to Hoover's requests for funds.

The article said five special FBI agents are on loan to Rooney to help with subcommittee work. Tolson's letter denied this.

Motorcycle Stolen By 'Hot Wiring' It

Bruce S. Bordi of 50 Sonoma Street, Apt. 9, San Rafael, told San Rafael police someone stole his gold 1964 Triumph motorcycle from his carport Thursday night by cutting off the ignition terminals to "hot-wire" it.

The terminal and a knife were found on the ground in the carport, police said.

Volunteers Begin Amblyopia Testing

Children at Belevedere Nursery School were screened last week for the detection of amblyopia, an eye defect, and in the next few months most of Marin's nursery schools will be included in the screening program sponsored by the California Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Amblyopia is not obvious to a parent unless his child's eyes are crossed, the society explains. It results from one eye being inherently weaker than the other. The child gradually stops using the weak eye and permanent impairment of vision results. For successful treatment, the condition must be detected early preferably before the age of four. It is usually treated by patching the good eye.

THE VOLUNTEER BUREAU of Marin, which is sponsored by the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc., has staffed the program with 24 volunteers to conduct the screening throughout the county. Over half of the volunteers are members of the Delta Gamma Alumnae, whose national concern is blindness.

Frederic S. Weisenheimer, Ed.D., project director for the California Society for the Prevention of Blindness, announced that all volunteers have been trained by Mrs. Barbara Van Veen, the organization's public health nurse-consultant. He urged that children who are not in a nursery school or whose schools are unable to be included in the screening program be examined for amblyopia by a vision specialist.

Taking Good Care Of The Yule Tree

Whether you select your Christmas tree at a plantation or buy it from a local Christmas tree lot it deserves special care when brought into the house.

Stand the tree in a container of water during its entire stay in your house. Refill the container as the tree absorbs the water Place your tree in the coolest part of the house ..... away from fireplaces and heaters. Don't block an exit.

Be sure that the wiring sets for lights on your tree have been tested for safety For safety's sake provide a switch some distance from the tree for turning tree lights off and on. Don't plug or unplug them beneath the tree. Never leave tree lights burning when no one is at home.

Sari Can Create Crisis

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Six yards of silk is all the Indian woman needs to dress herself elegantly. But those six yards could create a crisis in the family budget.

A sari—a 72-by-40-inch piece of handspun silks — can cost from $10.50 to $1,050. The most expensive types are the Benaras brocades, with designs in gold of cheetahs chasing the black buck, or sunsets over the holy river.

THE KASHMIR SARIS are known as the ring-tested saris. You can pull a six-yard-long sari through a wedding ring. They are as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth.

"They are very expensive and besides nobody likes embroidered motifs these days," a leading sari merchant in downtown New Delhi said.

YOU'RE NOT WANTED HERE

Drivers might just get the idea from the signs that the California Division of Highways is trying to discourage autos from entering the freeway through an off-ramp. They'd be right. The array of signs, used in a test on Interstate 80 near Sacramento, has sharply curtailed the number of wrong-way drivers—and undoubtedly the number of injury or fatal crashes, during the test period. At night, the reflectorized red arrow between the two white ones also shines in any oncoming headlights.

Drake Song, Yell Leader Ballot Changes Boost Campus Spirit

By LINDA SIEM
Drake High School Student

Thirty-one candidates for song leading survived the preliminary screening committee, and will try out before the entire student body. Only seven will be elected.

The yell leading election procedure was changed back to its original form of electing in groups because last year's idea of running singly did not create any more interest.

"With yell leading, the whole idea is how they work together as a group and coordinate their routines together," says Student Body Vice President Andy Morse. "It's not the precision of one person but of the whole group."

The procedure of electing song leaders individually seems an improvement over electing in groups. This is the second semester this has been done.

Jean Burns, dean of girls, said, "They cannot depend on a group to win for them. They are elected on their own merits and not dependent on the popularity of the group."

"It gives girls a chance to run who would never have run before," said Gerald Lucey, advisor on student affairs.

The yell and song leaders both try out individually before the screening committee, then the yell leaders form a group of their own choice and are voted on by the student body as a group. The song leaders are put into groups of six by the screening committee and are voted on individually by the student body.

Crash Hurts Four Girls

Four teen-aged Petaluma girls were hurt, one seriously, when the car in which they were riding missed a curve and went down a bank on Wilson Hill Road three miles south of Petaluma at 9:30 p.m. Friday.

In fair condition at Petaluma's Hillcrest Hospital today was Lyn Silva, 17, who suffered head and chest injuries when she was thrown from the car, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The others, all in good condition, were Joy Plummer and Sharon McPherson, both 17, and Elaine A. Elphick, 18, the driver.

Coed Wants To Follow Her Sister In Foreign Studies

Roberta Smith has been selected as Sir Francis Drake High School's candidate for the Experiment in International Living program.

If approved by the central office of the program in Vermont, she will travel to Europe for two months next summer.

"I'd like to go anywhere," Roberta says, "but since I've had three years of French, I made France my first choice."

The summer program of the Experiment in International Living is a combination of study and travel. If Roberta goes, she will live with a family and attend classes at a local school for part of her stay. Plenty of time is alloted for travel.

International relations has been an important part of the Smith family. They have "adopted" a boy in Hong Kong and, while he remains there in an orphanage, they support him. Roberta's older sister spent her junior year of college in Scotland and is now applying through the experiment to go to Poland.

Give Post Office A Break —Mail Christmas Packages

You still have time to dig out from under, and to get your Christmas packages and cards mailed out to your friends.

But there's just barely enough time, and no more. This reminder comes from the harried postmasters of Marin County, who are already girding themselves for the rush that is upon them.

If you wait any longer, Santa can't promise to deliver your messages and best wishes in time for Christmas. Just consider the job that the post offices face, and you might realize why.

Take the San Rafael Post Office alone. Postmaster Warren Williams reports that last December, his office handled 13,650,000 pieces of mail in that one month alone. This month, the traffic should reach 14 million pieces of mail.

During the height of the Christmas rush, the San Rafael office processes more than one million pieces of mail in ONE day. It's no wonder that Santa cannot possibly handle each letter and each package with kid gloves, taking care that ribbons will not be crushed and bows will not become untied.

"Remember that the package you send may be shipped on the bottom of a mail sack and there may be heavier packages on top," the postmaster warns. "Among the relatively few packages that are damaged in transit, improper packing is the greatest factor."

Tuesday of next week is suggested as the deadline for mailing packages out of town. Overseas packages are probably too late already. They should have been prepared back in October.

Postmasters have other tips which will not only put zip into Christmas mailing but will help postal employees move the mountain of mail that is expected:

Use the free "local" and "out of town" separation bands, which are available at all post offices.

A half million parcels wind up unclaimed each year because of improper or illegible addresses and poor packaging.

Parcels should be addressed on only one side. Addresses should also be written on the inside, in case the outer wrapping should come off.

HE CAN WAIT TILL CHRISTMAS EVE

LONDON — When you scan the headlines in the London papers, it is difficult to be sure whether you are reading the news from Birmingham, Ala., or Birmingham, England.

It is visibly creating the same kind of social, political, and economic tensions as in the United States.

There are now nearly a million colored immigrants in the British Isles and they are increasing at the rate of about 40,000 a year. By 1967 approximately 17 per cent of those leaving the British schools and looking for work will be colored.

RACIAL PREJUDICE has never been sharply manifest in Britain, perhaps because there has never, until recently, been any large racial minority in the country.

It is being manifest today. The press is full of it. It exploded above the surface in the recent election. The provocative slogan, "If you want a nigger for a neighbor, vote Labor," raised its head in the Smethwick district in Birmingham. It was disowned by both parties, but the issue turned the election. It cropped up in other districts.

Britain and the United States have two things in common in their approach to the racial problem.

As in the U. S., the national government is putting its full weight on the side of equal rights and non-discrimination.

AS IN THE U. S., the national leadership is deeply opposed to making race or color a political issue and are seeking to deal constructively with the social problems—education, housing, health and jobs—in which racial tensions fester.

The most knowledgeable experts here are convinced that the British can avert the worst if the leaders are prepared to lead and not capitulate to local political pressure and expediency.

One social scholar gave me this estimate: "About 20 per cent of the people here are anti-colored, deeply prejudiced against them; about 10 per cent are pro-colored, actively prejudiced for them, intent upon fighting for their rights and welfare; the remaining 70 per cent are non-prejudiced."

There is an acute clash of culture and religion which is absent in the U. S. It is an immigrant problem. The flow of Commonwealth citizens to Britain includes Hindus from the Punjab, Moslems from Pakistan and Kashmir, and Negroes from the West Indies. It is a new experience which has developed only in the past decade.

Actually the British economy urgently needs immigrants. There is a shortage of labor which is holding back the modernization of its industrial plant. There is underemployment; the idle are only 1.5 per cent compared with America's 5 per cent. Vacant jobs rose 100,000 in the past 12 months while unemployment was going down.

There is nothing insoluble about the British colored problem, but, as we know in the U. S., it will grow worse if neglected or inflamed.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In her letter to the I-J on Dec. 2, Mrs. Virginia Larke said that "'Fascist' is an alien word and only a leftist would use it in referring to fellow Americans." Has she forgotten already that in one of his speeches in the last weeks of the campaign her hero, Senator Goldwater, said that the Democratic Party is a "fascist" organization?

I wonder how she would solve the problem that now remains. Is Goldwater a "leftist" — or are the 42 million voters who chose Johnson not "fellow Americans"?

Christmas Tree Bouquet Urged

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I hope you will agree that one of your Saturday "bouquets" should be given to those responsible for putting up the beautiful Christmas tree overlooking Paradise Drive in Corte Madera.

I would assume from your picture and story in Monday's newspaper that credit should go to Mr. Moseley, Mr. Michel, SFO Helicopters and Master Electric Co.

This is the sort of project that is truly in keeping with the spirit of the coming holidays.

Rumford Act Is Called 'Insidious'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am so concerned about the Rumford Act, I feel I must speak out.

The insidious nature of this act has been completely camouflaged with the racial issue.

As a citizen of a free society, my government has no right to tell me to whom I shall sell my property. This is the issue at stake, not the racial issue as leftists in our government would have us believe.

The average property owner works hard and sacrifices to purchase property. If I don't like the way you tie your shoes, it is my prerogative to refuse to do business with you.

Marincello Called Colossal Tragedy

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The development of Marincello, if permitted, would be a colossal tragedy.

Through the construction of several high rise apartments, a portion of marvelous Marin would be exploited for the benefit of out-of-state investors. Industrial zoning is being requested next to our new State park and adjoining choice residential lands outside of their project.

Marincello developers plan a population density twice as great as the highest now existing in Marin. They propose a ratio of apartments to single family dwellings 40 times greater than the present ratio. If zoning changes are granted, all of Marin's undeveloped lands become subject to similar intensified development.

A tax surplus lure is predicated upon the immediate establishment of clean, desirable light industry, even though hundreds of acres of better industrial lands (already zoned for this purpose) remain unwanted in the County. They foresee a city of few children, a primary method utilized to keep their projected community costs down, while others with children would rise.

Marincello investors propose to retain ownership in 60 per cent of their land and improvements, thereby establishing a "company" town—tomorrow's tenements if their dreams fail to materialize.

The support of your readers is solicited to urge our County Planning Commission to reject this undesirable proposal during its embryonic stage.

Footnote Is Added To Redwood Series

Editor, Independent-Journal:

With a great deal of interest I read the editorial series in the Independent-Journal on the subject of the redwood parks. With so much propaganda around, it is most comforting to know that an editor can take so detached a viewpoint.

"What remains for us to do, as practical men, is to look the conditions squarely in the face and not permit the emotional side of the question, which has its proper place, to blind us to the fact that there are other sides. We must set about finding out what the real abuses are, with their causes, and to what extent remedies can be applied."

Marin Attorneys Support Bales

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Please be advised that at its last regular meeting the Marin County Bar Association unanimously adopted a resolution which expressed its full faith and complete confidence in the District Attorney's Office of Marin County, and in the integrity and fairness of the District Attorney, Bruce B. Bales.

The Association also endorsed the recent action and report of the Marin County Grand Jury and concurred in the resolution adopted by that body to the effect that the allegations contained in your editorial of September 18, 1964, were without foundation.

The members requested that the President of the Bar Association forward this letter, containing a resume of their actions, for your information.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Campus Sit-In Called Robbery Of Taxpayers, Actual Students

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — There was a time when a university was known as a place where young men and women obtained an education.

THE CHARACTER of the University of California at Berkeley, however, appears to have changed somewhat to an institution where bearded beatniks, sit-ins and probably members of Communist-inspired organization seek to promote subversive propaganda on a phony free speech and free political issue.

Pictures of the sit-ins at the university look suspiciously like the same type of people who were acknowledged members of the Congress for Racial Equality, known as CORE, who moved into the State Capitol with the full approval and welcoming of Gov. Edmund G. Brown when the State Legislature was considering the Rumford Act, which it passed. Later the act was repudiated by the people of the state by a massive majority.

THE GOVERNOR has changed his attitude, however, and far from welcoming the sit-ins at Berkeley, ordered them removed from the premises and arrested. And this should get him some commendation.

Two questions arise with the invasion of the CORE tactics in Berkeley. First, who are the non-students participating, what are their connections with subversive organizations, if any, and why are non-students permitted on the campus when they have no business there in the first place?

Second, why does not the university expel the participating students, and make room for young people who are anxious to complete their education and become respected citizens of the community?

UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS go out of their way to teach students to use their brains. They allow as much leeway as possible in the free-thinking activities of students.

But the fact remains, the university is established and is operated with money derived from taxpayers of the state for a specific purpose, to educate youth, and develop leadership for the forthcoming generation.

It's a safe bet that the majority of the taxpayers in the state, all of whom contribute heavily to support of the university, find no merit in the theory that the campus should be an open gate for the disbursement of subversive propaganda. That the sit-ins are trying to make it so is evident by the songs they sing as they are hauled away by the law. The same song, "We Shall Overcome," was the theme of the CORE sit-ins in the State Capitol.

Neither will the taxpayers like the additional costs which will result from the time of enforcement officers spent in arresting these propaganda artists, and the time which will be spent by the courts trying their cases.

FOR THE MOST part, it can be said that the vast majority of university students want no part of propaganda activities. They realize education in the university is a privilege, and are there to make the most of the courses offered to them.

It is, therefore, an insult to the dedicated student to permit such a sit-in, as it robs him of time normally devoted to studies. And those students who participate in the sit-in are not only robbing themselves of opportunities, but the taxpayer of hard cash. Clearly, they do not belong in a university.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

SINCE BEA LILLIE and Bert Lahr are, in my opinion, two of the funniest people on the stage today, and Walter Kerr is the best practicing drama critic, I take the liberty of quoting these two capsule comments by Mr. Kerr: 1. "You no sooner begin to feel, as you go back to see her year after year, that Beatrice Lillie has surely exhausted her improbable repertory of ladylike leers and hollow glissando laughter, than she cocks what seems to be an altogether new eyebrow at you and you're off again — hurtling into the aisle." 2. "I must assume that Bert Lahr is the crumpled descendant of the very first goat."

One day I hope to see Miss Lillie and Mr. Lahr reunited in a triumphant Broadway musical.

AN ABSENT-MINDED hostess in the Park Avenue sector had to introduce at a cocktail party, a guest she had known for years, but whose name had eluded her momentarily. Unfortunately, she resorted to the old ploy, "I'm dreadfully sorry, but how do you spell that name of yours again?" The guest replied icily, "S-M-I-T-H."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Approximately 150 Mill Valley citizens turned out for unveiling of the city's master plan. Only one protest was recorded—by San Rafael attorney A. E. Bagshaw in behalf of clients in the Alto area, who favored 6,000-square-foot lots rather than the proposed 10,000-foot lots.

20 YEARS AGO

Contract for preparing meals for county jail prisoners was awarded to Mrs. Florence Sears, operator of a Mill Valley delicatessen. The previous caterer asked to be relieved of the contract after 33 inmates became ill after eating Thanksgiving dinner.

Russia Not Alone In United Nations Debt

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—The U. S. is up against a stacked deck in its proclaimed determination to force Russia to pay some 54.768 million dollars in long-overdue regular and special United Nations assessments.

That huge total is 22 million dollars more than the U. N.'s 1964 budget.

Virtually half of the U. N. members are in default on dues or other payments. Most of them are Western nations and U. S. allies.

Of these debtors, 51 have received large amounts of U. S. aid of various kinds. Most are still getting such assistance. Yet, despite that, 41 owe U. N. payments for several or more years.

That puts them in the same category as recalcitrant Russia —liable to loss of voting rights in the General Assembly under Article 19 of the U. N. Charter.

THIS IS WHY the U. S. is encountering so much difficulty mustering the necessary support for a head-on showdown with the Soviet.

The principle the U. S. is battling for is just and unchallengeable, especially as it has always borne a major share of U. N. costs. But many U. S. allies and some of the biggest beneficiaries of its immense foreign aid outlays are smeared with the same sorry brush as the Reds—and covertly are against doing anything about it.

FOURTEEN other countries besides Russia are now subject to loss of General Assembly voting rights under Article 19. Of these, six are in the Soviet bloc.

Poland's $3,665,000 default is particularly indefensible, as the U. S. has underwritten hundreds of millions in surplus food sales to that Red satellite. As a result, the U. S. has more than 447 million dollars in so-called counterpart funds in Poland.

Yugoslavia is another Communist-ruled nation that has benefitted hugely from U. S. aid, but somehow has not been able to pay its U. N. obligations. On the basis of the last available records, June 30, 1963, it owes $301,453.

Yet that year it received 113.5 million dollars in U. S. aid, and this country has some 300 million dollars in counterpart funds accumulated there.

Argentina, one of the 15 countries now subject to loss of voting rights because of being in default more than two years, has received upwards of 689 million dollars in U. S. aid — plus hundreds of millions in still-unpaid loans.

Yet, despite getting 156.5 million dollars in aid last year and about the same this year, Argentina hasn't been able to meet $3,048,000 in U. N. debts.

Nationalist China is another graphic illustration of these curious inconsistencies. Since 1946 it has received 4.473 billion dollars.

Chile, now seeking a new 150-million-dollar long-term low-interest U. S. loan, has an equally dismal record.

Last August the House, by a 351 to 0 vote, approved a resolution sponsored by Rep. Edna Kelly (D-N. Y.), calling on President Lyndon B. Johnson to initiate vigorous action stripping the Soviet of its General Assembly voting rights unless it paid its U. N. arrearages.

With approximately half of the U. N. members in arrears, the prospects for a meaningful crackdown don't look very bright—particularly as Russia and its satellites aren't the only culprits.

Every Day In Every Way, We Worry About Saving Bay

EVERY DAY around Richardson Bay we seem to become more and more aware of dirt, mud and water.

Two Sundays back a Strawberry woman, Mrs. Robert Allen, waded right out into the mud in her tennies and became lodged up to her hips.

"This is rather common with clam diggers," said Donlon Argues of Sausalito. But Mrs. Allen wasn't clam digging. She was trying to stop a dredge from digging mud from one spot and placing it in another spot in the bay.

Dirt is now appearing on land across from the Fountain Motel on Shoreline Highway near Richardson Bay Bridge and atop the already filled playfield at Tamalpais High.

WE TALKED TO Fred and Bert Martin in Tamalpais Junction, who said their land is all filled and they see no reason why Bothin interests, adjoining the Martins, should not do as they want. "They pay enough taxes on it."

Speaking for the Bothin Co., Dick Gatley said, "We don't want to fill the bay. We propose to bring about use of the water. We propose excavation and not fill." He commented that every responsible, thinking person is certainly not advocating indiscriminate filling — "even when people are stampeded by the press that takes things out of context."

Living on the bay at Waldo Point in a "mudder" is Ethelwynn Steese. "Most of the people live here because they enjoy it—not because of any cheaper rent. The rents are as expensive as any other place, $75 and more for one room." Defining mudder, she said, "It's a house boat. It used to float. It doesn't now."

PROVING RICHARDSON Bay's upper reaches are boatable, bird watcher Elizabeth Terwilliger last week led a dozen canoers around De Silva Island, under the bridge and as far up Mill Valley Creek to be abreast of the 2 A. M. Club.

"People in offices overlooking Coyote Creek waved at us, cars honked from the bridge and birding was excellent," said Mrs. Mary Mayer of Sausalito.

"As far as I'm concerned, I'm only interested in the waterfront," said Arques whom we found painting a boat engine crankcase with oil in Marinship. "I don't care to fill any of my property." To stop all the fighting, he suggested that fill matters be worked out by planning commissions.

"A general moratorium on fill doesn't make any sense unless there is some advantage in maintaining the shoreline. If there is, you have to buy the property because someone owns it."

He spoke of the cost of filling, saying it is $35,000 per block, or 2.2 acres. He added he prefers fill for apartments rather than stilts because rats run around underneath and the marsh underneath a dock "smells like hell." We have a raccoon under the dock right now who digs clams, cracks them and leaves the stink behind, he said.

"NOBODY WILL AGREE that you can sell a man a piece of property and then tell him you can't do anything with it."

Aques has lived in Sausalito since 1914 and bought Waldo Point in 1921. "In 1915 the only thing here was a molasses dock where barges came to bring black-strap from Cuba, used to make rum at the distillery. There used to be clamming run by the Connell boys at Waldo Point and oysters and Marinship was all fine bass fishing."

We used to fight the railroad who ran the town, said the shipyard man, and now there are about seven people's committees, who change members every three months.

DRIVING HOME, we watched the white birds in the marshland, not knowing if they were widgeons, scaup or pintails but confident that, with just plain horse sense, something can be worked out so that the marinas can be built and the birds and boaters can keep paddling around.

Box Office Battle On Subtitles Almost Splits Up Kennedy Clan

A few weeks ago the Kennedys decided to take their children and a few friends to a film in Washington, D. C. It was the first outing for Mr. Kennedy since his election and he was looking forward to it.

THEY CHOSE what they thought to be a cowboy picture titled "The Man From Rio," but when they got into the theater they discovered it was a French comedy with English subtitles.

Mrs. Kennedy was very upset, particularly since several of the children couldn't read.

She told Mr. Kennedy she would get their money back and they would go to another movie. She went outside to the box office and explained to the cashier she didn't know the picture was a foreign one and asked for her $14.50 back.

THE CASHIER SAID it was against the policy of the theater to refund any tickets and anyone should have known it was a foreign picture just by the cast.

THE MANAGER offered to let her take the ones who couldn't read across the street to see "Rio Concha," an American film. Mrs. Kennedy said she refused to split up her family.

As an afterthought she said, "I know Pierre Salinger and he may become the head of the Motion Picture Producers Assn. and I'm going to see the first thing he does is make a ruling that your theater must indicate on the outside when it is showing a foreign film."

Mrs. Kennedy was so adamant that the manager finally said, "All right, lady, I'll mail you the $14.50. What's your name?"

"Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy."

THE MANAGER GULPED. "Any relation to the senator?"

"His wife."

"You can get your money back now."

Mrs. Kennedy went back to the box office, but the cashier told her she would have to wait in line. She said she wasn't moving until she got her $14.50.

The cashier realized she meant business and said, "Give me your stubs."

Mrs. Kennedy could find only 12 stubs. She needed 14.

THE CASHIER CALLED the manager and he said, "Give her anything."

It took 40 minutes, but Mrs. Kennedy swept into the theater triumphantly with the money in her hand. She told Mr. Kennedy they could leave now. Mr. Kennedy said, "I don't want to leave. This is one of the funniest pictures I've ever seen."

All the children shouted. "We don't want to leave. We're going to stay until it's over!"

With tears in her eyes the pregnant Mrs. Kennedy returned the $14.50 to the box office.

THE HAPPY SIDE to the story is that Mrs. Kennedy is still talking to Mr. Kennedy—but just barely.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1931, President Herbert Hoover refused to see a group of so-called "Hunger Marchers" at the White House.

In 1941, Japan struck U.S. bases in the Pacific, bombing Pearl Harbor, the Philippines, Wake and Guam islands and the British possessions of Singapore and Hong Kong.

A thought for the day — President Franklin D. Roosevelt said: "Never before have we had so little time in which to do so much."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Don't Create A Problem By Making Hasty Play

Some people think that a bridge expert is a brainy chap, and I'll get no thanks from my colleagues for denying this.

Still, the truth is that the average bridge player needs more brains than the expert because the average player creates problems for himself where the expert makes matters simple.

Opening lead — ♠ Q

West opened the queen of spades, and declarer (not an expert) won with dummy's king. Then he tried to guess whether to tackle clubs or diamonds first.

LED JACK

South finally led the jack of diamonds from dummy. East put up the ace of diamonds and led his spade, permitting West to overtake and clear the suit.

Declarer eventually had to develop his clubs, whereupon West took the ace of clubs and the rest of his spades, collecting 200 points for a 2-trick set.

"Wrong guess," South complained. "If I tackled clubs first, the ace of clubs would be knocked out, and the spades would be dead. Later on it would be safe to touch the diamonds. But how could I tell which ace was where?"

DIFFICULT CHOICE

South's choice was indeed difficult, but the expert would not have this problem. He would allow West to win the first trick with the queen of spades.

If West continues spades, South is safe even if he leads diamonds first. East cannot continue the attack on spades because he has no more spades to lead.

If declarer leads clubs first, West can set up his suit but can never get back to take his spade tricks.

FINE PLAYER

A very fine West player would shift to the nine of hearts at the second trick, foreseeing that his spades are useless.

If South wins the first heart trick he must again guess which suit to tackle first — except that this time he must begin with diamonds in order to force out East's ace before the hearts are set up.

The expert would have no problem. He would refuse the first heart trick. Then both long suits would be dead, and South could knock out both aces without wondering which ace to force out first.

DAILY QUESTION

Answer: Bid 1 NT.

The hand is not strong enough for a response of two hearts. If partner had bid one club or one diamond, you would have bid one heart.

Nothing Down
Seven rooms (some of them are monsters) plus two baths and a laundry room that would convert readily to a third bath . . . all add up to a good solution for the family requiring that fourth bedroom, rumpus room, studio or mother-in-law apartment. Solidly built and spacious, here's a never-lived-in home in one of Novato's very best areas. Insulation, air-conditioning and built-in kitchen appliances, of course. Due to foreclosure, the original lender offers 100% financing (above closing costs) to a buyer who can carry payments above $200 per month.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on September 15, 1964, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds, and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of LARKSPUR School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

New 'Lindberg Butter' Helps Prevent Infection In Burns

VAN DELLEN

Sulfamylon is the new burn ointment devised at Brooke General hospital in San Antonio, Tex. It is applied like butter to the charred surface and is said to reduce mortality from 50 to 20 per cent among the more seriously burned. The product, an antiseptic, helps by preventing infection and has been dubbed Lindberg's butter, after the discoverer.

Approximately 70,000 persons are treated in hospitals annually for this mishap. This does not include the millions who sustain minor burns in the kitchen or at work. Most of the more serious injuries along this line affect children with boiling water or hot grease. Others get into trouble when playing with matches or inflammable materials.

THE DEPTH or the burn is traditionally classified into first, second, and third degree. The first two heal spontaneously but the third degree extends through the entire skin, which sloughs off and must be replaced with a skin graft.

The burn is likely to be deeper when the clothes catch fire than with hot water or a flash. Clothing usually protects against flash burns, unless it is ignited. On the other hand, clothing retains heat from hot water and should be removed immediately after the burn occurs.

IT IS DIFFICULT to appreciate the severity of a burn involving a large area of the body. The seared skin is extremely sensitive to the touch and the victim lies motionless most of the time. This means he is helpless until healing occurs. He is likely to be toxic, dehydrated, and in shock because of the loss of vital fluids through the raw surface.

The damaged tissues are excellent soil for the growth of micro-organisms, which is why infection usually develops. It is here that sulfamylon will enter the picture. Numerous skin grafts and physical therapy will be required later.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

HOT BATHS AND FERTILITY

Mrs. A. J. writes: I've read recently that a warm bath can make a man temporarily infertile. Could my husband's hot, steaming shower every morning keep me from becoming pregnant?

REPLY

It is true that warmth may affect male fertility, but temperatures as high as that of the body are needed over a long period of time (months or years).

MOUNTAIN SICKNESS

T. D. writes: I was in the Rockies on vacation last July. Just as the guide anticipated, some of the tourists developed breathing difficulties. Why does a high altitude cause shortness of breath?

REPLY

Because the barometric pressure is low, resulting in a short supply of oxygen. The reaction depends upon individual suseptibility and the amount of exertion done at a high altitude.

ERYTHEMA OF PALMS

Mrs. D. writes: Why do my palms redden during each pregnancy?

REPLY

We do not know why these vascular (circulatory) changes occur. Pregnancy brings about many alterations in the glandular system that might be responsible.

FLU IMMUNITY

R. S. writes: If flu shots are taken three years in a row, does this make you immune for life?

REPLY

No. In addition, the flu viruses change every few years and the vaccine must be altered to meet current needs.

SHOULDER LOOSENING

M. T. writes: Can a frozen shoulder be loosened?

REPLY

This is difficult to do and depends upon the length of time the shoulder has been stiff. Manipulation under anesthesia is needed along with extensive physical therapy.

WINE WITH MEALS

M. T. writes: Is it safe for a person with high blood pressure to have wine with a meal once a day?

REPLY

Yes, especially if it relaxes but does not make him gain weight.

RARE IN WOMEN

P. E. P. writes: I know Buerger's disease is considered an affliction of youngish men. What about older women (in the sixties)?

REPLY

Their arteries narrow, too, but we call it arteriosclerosis.

SLIM LIMBS

J. S. writes: Will regular massage fatten thin legs?

REPLY

No. Fat comes through the stomach and not from massaging.

School will be dismissed at Terra Linda at 12:25 p.m. and at San Rafael at 1:05 p.m.

WHAT COULD SAVE 5,000 LIVES A YEAR AND REDUCE SERIOUS INJURIES BY ONE-THIRD?

BUCKLED SEAT BELTS!

It's a fact. The National Safety Council says that if everyone riding in a car was protected by a buckled seat belt—over 5,000 lives could be saved each year. And serious injuries could be reduced by at least one-third. Take a tip from the Safety Council and buckle up for safety every time you drive.

Published to save lives in cooperation with The Advertising Council and the National Safety Council.

Legislative Plans Due Supervisors

When supervisors redistricted supervisorial districts Tuesday, Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said that election at large would be a solution to the problem of representation.

Under present law, Marin cannot elect its supervisors at large, and the board is expected to ask the state to pass legislation which would permit such an election.

The board also is scheduled to receive a request from County Clerk George H. Gnoss to raise his salary as jury commissioner because creation of a fourth superior court has increased the workload.

3-Car Crash Follows Skid Of Fourth

A woman's car skidded broadside on Highway 101 south of Rodeo Avenue in Sausalito Saturday evening, and started a chain reaction which caused minor injuries for two persons.

The skidding car was not hit, but the next three cars in the southbound lanes piled up in a rear-end crash.

Third car back was driven by Felton C. Robertson, 48, of 16 Kristin Court, Novato, according to the California Highway Patrol. Officers said Robertson crashed into the rear of a car driven by Thomas R. Roddy, 49, of San Francisco.

TELEVISION REVIEW

'Rudolph' Program Is Sheer Delight

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — For the past six or seven years, this dedicated television watcher has been president and founder of an organization aimed at the network rationing — no more than once an hour — of "White Christmas" and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Imagine then the misgivings involved when tuning in an NBC special called "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" during yesterday's children's hour.

It was a program of sheer delight—for young and old.

Burl Ives, the voice of a puppet snowman who looked exactly like Burl Ives, told the tall tale, underlining its gentle moral, with exactly the right inflections.

ABC says that Bing Crosby—who started the whole "White Christmas" thing in 1942 — will sing his famous number in the Dec. 21 episode of his current comedy series.

TV Network Ratings In 3-Way Tie

NEW YORK (AP)—The major television networks wound up in approximately a three-way tie in audience popularity, according to Nielsen ratings made publoc today.

Research departments of all three networks found that the final statistics based on Nielsen's sampling of television homes during two weeks in mid-November resulted in total ratings of 19.4 for both CBS and NBC, and 19.3 for ABC. Each rating point represents slightly over 500,000 homes, and usually is counted as representing slightly more than a million viewers.

The report found NBC's "Bonanza" the nation's most popular show, followed by ABC's "Bewitched" and CBS' "Gomer Pyle, USMC."

ABC's "The Fugitive" and CBS' "Andy Griffith Show" were tied for fourth, followed by CBS' Red Skelton, "The Munsters" and "The Lucy Show." These were television's "top 10" shows for a rating period which the industry considers critical in making any schedule changes and in planning for next year's schedule.

'Amahl' Performance At Junior College

Singers in the Christmas opera include Kenneth D. Rowland of Novato and Donald L. Needy of San Rafael, while Marthan Shortridge of San Rafael and Kathleen Olson of Greenbrae are two of three girls who will dance in various performances around the area.

Art Association Elects Officers

Election of board members preceded the group's "holiday spirits" party and art show.

Also re-elected were treasurer Helen Hunter and membership chairman Mrs. Neil McNamara. New board members are vice-president Fred Cole, secretary Mrs. George Walser, and committee chairmen Mrs. James Mennick, Mrs. Leroy B. Meeker, Mrs. J. R. Cedarblade and Richard Phillips.

Sign Strictness Easing To Get Its First Test Tonight

San Rafael Planning Commission and Robert Bohanna, signmaker may clash again when the commission meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall.

Bohanna, owner of the Marin Neon Co., will request a use permit for five illuminated signs in areas where non-illuminated signs are required. An informal decision Wednesday by the city council and the commission to ease the commission's "watchdog" policy on business signs probably won't apply here.

Bohanna, in a running argument with the commission over business signs recently, took his case to the council. On Wednesday the council agreed informally that signs should be taken off the list of things which require architectural approval by the commission.

The matter was scheduled to come before the council again Monday, but it was agreed that any change in policy should wait until a well-thought-out sign ordinance has been passed.

So for the time being, signmaker Bohanna must still bring his signs before the commission for approval. Three other sign approval requests, one of them Bohanna set aside at a provious meeting, are on the commission agenda.

The commission will hold three public hearings on rezoning matters. Areas affected are the north side of Bayo Vista Way, an area off Lynn Court west of Irwin Street and south of Woodland Avenue, and Glenwood subdivisions 5 and 6 and other Glenwood locations.

The commission will also consider four subdivision maps, two variance requests, a Greyhound Bus Lines request to use a railroad right of way for bus storage, architectural approval for a Mobil service station at Francisco and Bellam boulevards, and a change in location of the Garden Shop in the United Market Building.

The commission will set dates for public hearings on two rezoning matters.
